Tribute Paid To Honored Dead Here

SMOKE FROM THE EIGHT RIFLES of the Company M firing squad drifts up into the spring air of the Washington C. H. Cemetery as a salute to the country's war dead is fired at the climax to Memorial Day tributes. (Record-Herald photo)

Parades and services to give what Washington C. H. Legion Commander Bill Marshall called "ultimate visible evidence" of tribute to Fayette County's war dead highlighted Memorial Day observances in four area communities Wednesday.

Washington C. H., Bloomingburg and Jeffersonville in Fayette County, along with New Holland in Pickaway County all held formal observances.

Eulogies honoring the war dead and the men and women who have served the country were on the program at cemetery services in all four communities.

As usual, the parades and services were not the holiday held for some people. A few used it to visit relatives in other places, others took it as a day of rest and a great many observed the occasion by paying tribute to their own civilian forebears in cemeteries throughout the area.

But many within the four communities saw at least part of a parade, and a substantial number participated in the services.

The Washington C. H. parade started at 10 A. M. at the corner of Market and Main streets and made its way down Court Street to the cemetery.

HEADING THE parade was a city police cruiser. A color guard followed the cruiser. The main body of the parade was led with the Varsity marching band from Washington C. H. High School. The Junior band was close to the rear of the parade.

Also in the line of march were the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Legion, the Disabled Veterans (some of whom rode in cars), Scout Troops, Campfire Girls, the auxiliaries of the various organizations and Company M.

Robert M. Jefferson, parade marshal, said he was "very very pleased," with the turnout for the long march.

The eulogy at the cemetery was delivered by Rev. Norman Renn, pastor of the First Baptist Church. On the platform at the cemetery were representatives of both city Legion Posts, the two VFW posts, the GAR and the auxiliaries of the organizations.

Services at the soldier's monument were conducted by the GAR, with the assistance of the high school brass choir and the Company M firing squad.

Following services there, another service was held at St. Colman's Catholic Cemetery. A firing squad from the VFW fired a salute at that service.

In Bloomingburg, the parade started at 2 P. M. at the high school, went to the cemetery and returned. Leading the parade was Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Mickle, followed by a color guard, the cemetery speakers, Company M, the Bloomingburg High School band, and marching units from the Washington C. H. Legion Posts and Bloomingburg Boy Scout and Cub Scout troops.

Rev. Herbert Ricketts delivered the eulogy at the cemetery.

JEFFERSONVILLE'S parade went from West High Street to the Old Cemetery, where short services were held and then on to Fairview Cemetery for a second service. The VFW firing squad assisted in the Old Cemetery services and Rev. Norman D. Newman delivered the eulogy in the Fairview Cemetery program.

In the parade were representatives of the Knights of Pythias, the American Legion, the VFW, the DAR, several auxiliary units and the Jeffersonville band, along with Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cubs and Brownies.

New Holland's parade, consisting of members of the Arch Legion Post and the Yellow Bud Community Band, was made up in large part of New Holland children. Each child who marched was presented with a flag to carry by the Legion.

The parade went from Legion Hall to the cemetery, where Dr. H. R. Cotterman of Capital University in Columbus, gave the eulogy.

Five New Directors, Elected By Mail, Also Are Announced

The Chamber of Commerce here today had five new directors and a master plan for area development as a guide for expansion in the future.

The new directors, chosen in a mail election and announced at Tuesday night's annual dinner meeting at the Country Club, are Jim Schwart, Bob Lisk, Max Lawrence, Wayne Bower and George Finlay. The board will elect the officers in the near future.

They take the places of the five retiring directors for three-year-terms— President Charles Reinke, Harris Willis, Scott Harner, Robert Terhune and Eddie Kirk.

The master plan was unfolded for the gathering of nearly 200 Chamber members by five graduate students of the School or City Design of Miami University at Oxford.

The master plan, which was frequently referred to during the presentation as a "comprehensive plan," was the result of more than a year of research and study under the direction of Prof. Rudolph Frankel, the head of the school.

IN PRESENTING the plan, a series of about 30 maps and charts was used. Projected on a screen, they were explained step by step. First charts and maps—in detail even to the type of homes and other buildings and trees—showed Washington C. H. and the surrounding area as it is today.

After that came those showing the ultimate objectives of the master plan with explanations of the basis for the recommendation.

It was emphasized time and again during the presentation that the plan was one for long range development, projected 25 years into the future. At one point, it was noted that the plan, despite some of the drastic changes it proposed, was aimed at building and not at tearing down.

It was stressed, too, that it was based on normal trends of growth and that the size of the population and the economic expansion of the area could be reached much sooner than 1980, depending on changing conditions and results of Chamber of Commerce policies regarding development.

Starting with a basic population of 12,500, the normal growth, according to the basis of the plan, was placed at around 16,000 after 25 years.

It was to take care of this growth, and changing economic conditions, that the plan was based, it was pointed out.

THERE WERE two fundamental recommendations: (1) that the traffic congestion in the heart of Washington C. H. should be relieved and (2) that full advantage should be taken of Paint Creek's course through the city for the development of a park and recreation system.

To achieve the first, it was suggested that the CCC Highway be rerouted around the north of the city. It also suggested that the railroads also be relocated around the city, but this was considered by most as more difficult for realization. A traffic check, it was said, showed a normal flow

Lorain Co. Sheriff Announces Further Inquiry To Be Made

A charge of shooting with intent to kill was filed Thursday morning against Deputy Sheriff Steve J. Mohowski of Lorain, by Washington C. H. Patrolman Lang Laytart.

Laytart critically wounded Mohowski in a gun battle at the Marathon service station at Court and North Streets here early Monday morning.

The police report said Mohowski opened fire after the police appeared and told him to drop his gun, with which he allegedly threatened them.

In the meantime, Mohowski is in University Hospital in Columbus, still in a critical condition with a bullet wound through his head.

Thursday Sheriff Carl R. Finegan, of Lorain County, his chief deputy, Edwin Gawlak, and a third man spent part of the afternoon here making further investigation into the shooting.

They spent sometime with Sheriff Orland Hays but not much time at police headquarters here, going over facts in the case as they were able to obtain them.

Lengthy articles have appeared in the Lorain newspapers which quote Sheriff Finegan and others there in connection with the case. They said Finegan had announced that he would make a full investigation into the affair here in which one of his deputies was critically wounded in a shooting affray with the police.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED that he was coming here to "clarify some badly conflicting statements". It was also stated in the newspaper that the plice here had not co-operated whole-heartedly when the two deputy sheriffs from Lorain County came here Monday to check into the shooting.

Police Chief Vaiden Long said that the officers were given all information possible and that all cooperation sought was given the visiting officers.

It was also indicated that the police here had "brushed off" the shooting in an inadequate report. In this connection Chief Long stated that the report made was similar to reports usually given in connection with matters requiring police attention.

It has developed that when Mohowski stopped in Hillsboro and was investigated by police there; that he told officers there a party of juveniles from Paris, Ky., was after him.

An official of the state Highway Patrol is quoted as saying that when Mohowski was a highway pa-

School Suit Attacked By Five of Six Boards In Probate Court Motion

A motion to strike certain allegations from a petition filed in Probate Court here May 4 by a group of 12 taxpayers against six school boards has been filed in the court by five of the six defendant boards.

The main objective of the taxpayers suit, which was signed by Sam B. Marting, is the formation of a Citizens Committee to represent the whole of Fayette County (including Washington C. H.) to study the knotty problem that has had the community in turmoil for the last five years.

The six defendant school boards which filed the motion seeking to strike out part of the Taxpayers allegations were the Fayette County Board and the boards of the Miami Trace, Bloomingburg, Jefferson and Paint districts. It was noted that W. J. Hilty, the clerk of the county board, concurred in the motion.

The Washington C. H. board has not yet filed its answer to the suit, but the School Board by resolution intended as a guide for its attorney, William Junk, expressed the belief that the facts set forth in the taxpayers petition were true.

Thus, the latest developments in the hassle, which has now reached a court of law, do not appear to be following the same lines of action.

THE MOTION by the five defendant boards asks to have stricken from the taxpayers' petition the allegation that they (the six boards) failed to perform their duties by failing to authorize one of their members to serve as a delegate to a convention (a meeting) to form a Citizens Committee as provided by state law.

The five defendant boards also challenge the claim on the Taxpayers' suit that they are subject to the jurisdiction of the court upon being advised of their failure to perform the duties prescribed by law.

The taxpayer suit bases its request for the formation of a Citizens Committee to represent the entire county on the contention that the merger of the Bloomingburg, Jefferson and Paint districts with the Miami Trace District was illegal because a petition signed by 537 voters asking that a Citizens Committee be formed was ignored. This petition, the suit says, was filed on Nov. 4 with Hilty, the clerk of the county board and that Hilty "failed to perform his duties" in calling the convention to form the Citizens Committee.

Kefauver Battles To Regain Ground He Lost To Stevenson

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, fighting to regain ground lost in his Florida primary defeat, campaigned at full throttle today to whip Adlai Stevenson in California's climactic Democratic presidential primary.

Stevenson obviously was buoyed by his Florida victory over Kefauver as he too pushed a drive for votes in the California primary next Tuesday.

The rival candidates quickly resumed their in-fighting. Kefauver blamed his Florida defeat on support given to Stevenson by what he called "Talmadge-type" politicians. Stevenson retorted that Kefauver was a "sore loser" and accused his opponent of "mud slinging."

The California primary is a winner-take-all proposition, with 68 convention votes the jackpot prize. It also is the last direct Kefauver-Stevenson test before the Democratic convention in August.

KEFAUVER, ranging the San Diego area yesterday, flung at Stevenson the old age pension and "bossism" issues he used in Florida, where Stevenson pocketed 22 of the state's 28 national convention votes.

With only 23 of Florida's 1,778 precincts unreported, Stevenson has 221,718 votes to 209,447 for Kefauver, an edge of slightly more than 12,000.

Kefauver said his record reflected unflagging solicitude for the elderly. And he repeated his Florida accusation that Stevenson, while governor of Illinois, vetoed a bill that would have raised old age pensions.

Stevenson has called that charge unfair, saying he vetoed the bill because the State Legislature failed to appropriate money to implement it. California, like Florida, has a substantial number of retired citizens.

On the "bossism" issue, Kefauver said, "One of the great dangers of the present campaign in California is that the Old Guard politicans are using the campaign of Mr. Stevenson to climb back into power."

He said the "main reason I lost in Florida" was that "Talmadge-type politicians" were for Stevenson and "against me on the civil

Soil Bank Can Be Used This Season, But Within Limits, Farmers Are Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Benson announced today that farmers in areas where 1956 crops are not too far advanced will be permitted to "bank" some croplands this year under the new $1.2 billion annual soil bank program.

Under this program, authorized by a new farm law signed by President Eisenhower Monday, the department will offer payments to farmers for reducing plantings of such surplus crops as wheat, corn, cotton, rice, peanuts and tobacco.

Payments will not be offered, Benson explained, on crops that already have matured.

Benson announced rates which will be offered for taking land out of wheat, corn, cotton and rice. Rates for tobacco and peanuts will be announced within a few days.

The rates are: corn 90 cents bushel; cotton 15 cents a pound; wheat $1.20 a bushel, and rice $2.25 a hundred pounds. These rates are equivalent to about 60 per cent of parity in the case of corn, cotton and wheat and 50 per cent of parity in the case of rice.

PARITY IS a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices they pay.

Each participating farmer would get a payment equal to these rates times the average production of the land diverted from the crops.

For example, a farmer who took 10 acres of corn land out of production, and who has had an average yield of 50 bushels an acre, would get a payment of 500 bushels times 90 cents or $450.

Based on national average production, payments would average $40 an acre on corn, $24 on wheat, $70 on cotton and $34 on rice.

Benson said the payments were designed, on the average, to be

Teen-agers Terrorize Lake Boat

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—A holiday outing ended in a voyage of terror for passengers aboard a Lake Erie amusement park vessel last night as teen-agers rioted aboard the ship.

Reporters aboard the crowded Canadiana for the 15-mile trip from Crystal Beach amusement park in Ontario to this city described it as "a nightmare of flashing knives and sobbing, frightened" passengers.

Rioting aboard the Canadiana flared up after a day of disorders by white and Negro youths at the amusement park.

Cpl. J. E. Legate of the Ontario provincial police at Crystal Beach was quoted by the Buffalo Courier-Express as saying the disorders were "strictly racial."

But F. L. Hall, general manager of the amusement park, said the disturbance there was "not a race riot."

Six persons were treated for injuries at hospitals in Buffalo and Fort Erie, Ont., and at least 10 others were treated for minor injuries at the park.

PROVINCIAL police arrested nine Buffalo youths at the beach. Five were Negroes and four whites.

The Negro youths were charged with unlawful assembly and the whites with creating a disturbance. All were released under $500 bail each.

Buffalo authorities took three

RUSSELLS POINT (AP) — Ten-year-old John Milton Lowry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lowry of Lima, collapsed and died of a heart attack at this Logan County resort yesterday.

The boy was wading in shallow water when he fell. Coroner Dr. A. J. McCracken ruled death was caused by heart attack.

Teen-agers Terrorize Lake Boat

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—A holiday outing ended in a voyage of terror for passengers aboard a Lake Erie amusement park vessel last night as teen-agers rioted aboard the ship.

Reporters aboard the crowded Canadiana for the 15-mile trip from Crystal Beach amusement park in Ontario to this city described it as "a nightmare of flashing knives and sobbing, frightened" passengers.

Rioting aboard the Canadiana flared up after a day of disorders by white and Negro youths at the amusement park.

Cpl. J. E. Legate of the Ontario provincial police at Crystal Beach was quoted by the Buffalo Courier-Express as saying the disorders were "strictly racial."

But F. L. Hall, general manager of the amusement park, said the disturbance there was "not a race riot."

Six persons were treated for injuries at hospitals in Buffalo and Fort Erie, Ont., and at least 10 others were treated for minor injuries at the park.

PROVINCIAL police arrested nine Buffalo youths at the beach. Five were Negroes and four whites.

The Negro youths were charged with unlawful assembly and the whites with creating a disturbance. All were released under $500 bail each.

Soil Bank Can Be Used This Season, But Within Limits, Farmers Are Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Benson announced today that farmers in areas where 1956 crops are not too far advanced will be permitted to "bank" some croplands this year under the new $1.2 billion annual soil bank program.

Under this program, authorized by a new farm law signed by President Eisenhower Monday, the department will offer payments to farmers for reducing plantings of such surplus crops as wheat, corn, cotton, rice, peanuts and tobacco.

Payments will not be offered, Benson explained, on crops that already have matured.

Benson announced rates which will be offered for taking land out of wheat, corn, cotton and rice. Rates for tobacco and peanuts will be announced within a few days.

The rates are: corn 90 cents bushel; cotton 15 cents a pound; wheat $1.20 a bushel, and rice $2.25 a hundred pounds. These rates are equivalent to about 60 per cent of parity in the case of corn, cotton and wheat and 50 per cent of parity in the case of rice.

PARITY IS a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices they pay.

Each participating farmer would get a payment equal to these rates times the average production of the land diverted from the crops.

For example, a farmer who took 10 acres of corn land out of production, and who has had an average yield of 50 bushels an acre, would get a payment of 500 bushels times 90 cents or $450.

Based on national average production, payments would average $40 an acre on corn, $24 on wheat, $70 on cotton and $34 on rice.

Benson said the payments were designed, on the average, to be trolman, he resigned rather than face an investigation that he had been drinking and was involved in an accident on Route 40. Sometime later he was employed as a deputy in Lorain County, the reports stated.

MOHOWSKI was shot when police rushed to the service station when Clarence Jones, attendant, notified police that a man with a gun in his belt and acting strangely, had stopped at the station, and he believed a hold-up was about to take place.

Answering the call with Patrol-Laytart were Sgt. Walter Marshall and Patrolman Elmer Kelly. Officers Marshall and Kelly, the reports said, were out of range of fire, Marshall behind a gasoline pump and Kelly at the police cruiser.

Patrolman Laytart and Deputy Mohowski fought it out from opposite ends of Mohowski's car. The windshield of the car was punctured by six or seven bullets and the back glass was shattered by the slugs.

The police report said Patrolman Laytart shot Mohowski with a gun he had bought Sunday afternoon at the Gun and Indian Relic Collectors Association meeting here. Patrolman Laytart said he pulled his new gun, which he had emptied his police pistol during the gun gight. He said the shot was fired when Mohowski came from behind his car and said: "Now you are out of shells and I'll get you."

equal to or a little better than the net returns made on these crops, after paying production costs.

In order to be eligible for such payments, a farmer would have to plant less than the acreage allotment assigned him for any affected crop under the department's crop control program.

Benson said cut off dates for signing contracts to participate in the soil bank will be established by areas in relation to crop progress, and will be announced later.

Farmers will work out their programs and sign agreements with the department's local agricultural stabilization and conservation committees, made up of fellow-farmers.

Benson said payments will go out to participating farmers as quickly as compliance can be determined and the administrative machinery set up to make the payments. Presumably, this would be late in the summer or early fall.

Benson said that the program would call for the plowing up of immature crops. While agreeing that the practice of paying farmers to plow up crops has come under criticism in the past, the secretary said he believed it could be justified as long as no mature crops were involved. He said plowing under of green, immature crops adds fertility and makes other improvements in the soil.

The secretary went over various provisions of the new farm law and said the administration was disturbed by a provision directing it to sell up to five million bales of surplus cotton abroad this year at prices which officials consider to be too low.

London Policemen Guarding Queen

LONDON (AP) — Security men with telltale pistol bulges in their raincoats mingled with cheering London crowds today as Queen Elizabeth rode on horseback through sun-drenched streets to review her troops.

Hundreds of extra police were drafted into the city from outlying provinces and plainclothes detectives moved up and down the procession route on the watchout for three Cypriot gunmen reported to have slipped into England with assassination orders. In Britain policemen usually go unarmed.

Three From Here In Top Spots at Races

Three Washington C. H. men were among the top placers in races at Atomic Speedway near Chillicothe Wednesday.

Phil Tatman, Bill Knisley and Tommy Webb were the three. Tatman and Knisley scored second and third in the first heat, while Webb and Tatman placed in the feature.

Fast time of the evening went to Jimmy Meeker of Chillicothe, with 18 seconds.

Buzz Bosman of Circleville won the first heat with a time of 3:27.08. He was trailed by Tatman and Knisley. Speedy Sims of Kingston took the second with 3:9.05. Trailing him were Thurm Wheeler of Circleville and Speedy Baldwin of Columbus.

The third heat was won by Gene Thimmis of Circleville with a time of 3:7.05. Behind him were Wayne McGuire of Gregory, Ky., and Jimmy Meeker of Chillicothe.

Bobby Morgan of Chillicothe won the consolation with a time of 3:-19.05. Following him were Paul Spencer of Portsmouth and Tommy Webb of Washington C. H.

McGuire took the winner's handicap with a time of 3:43. Behind him were Baldwin, Thimmis and Sims. McGuire also took the feature, with a time of 16.54. This time he was trailed by Thimmis, Meeker, Webb, Wheeler, Bosman and Tatman.

trolman, he resigned rather than face an investigation that he had been drinking and was involved in an accident on Route 40. Sometime later he was employed as a deputy in Lorain County, the reports stated.

MOHOWSKI was shot when police rushed to the service station when Clarence Jones, attendant, notified police that a man with a gun in his belt and acting strangely, had stopped at the station, and he believed a hold-up was about to take place.

Answering the call with Patrolmen Laytart were Sgt. Walter Marshall and Patrolman Elmer Kelly. Officers Marshall and Kelly, the reports said, were out of range of fire, Marshall behind a gasoline pump and Kelly at the police cruiser.

Patrolman Laytart and Deputy Mohowski fought it out from opposite ends of Mohowski's car. The windshield of the car was punctured by six or seven bullets and the back glass was shattered by the slugs.

The police report said Patrolman Laytart shot Mohowski with a gun he had bought Sunday afternoon at the Gun and Indian Relic Collectors Association meeting here. Patrolman Laytart said he pulled his new gun, which he had emptied his police pistol during the gun gight. He said the shot was fired when Mohowski came from behind his car and said: "Now you are out of shells and I'll get you."

Soil Bank Use

equal to or a little better than the net returns made on these crops, after paying production costs.

In order to be eligible for such payments, a farmer would have to plant less than the acreage allotment assigned him for any affected crop under the department's crop control program.

Benson said cut off dates for signing contracts to participate in the soil bank will be established by areas in relation to crop progress, and will be announced later.

Farmers will work out their programs and sign agreements with the department's local agricultural stabilization and conservation committees, made up of fellow-farmers.

Benson said payments will go out to participating farmers as quickly as compliance can be determined and the administrative machinery set up to make the payments. Presumably, this would be late in the summer or early fall.

Benson said that the program would call for the plowing up of immature crops. While agreeing that the practice of paying farmers to plow up crops has come under criticism in the past, the secretary said he believed it could be justified as long as no mature crops were involved. He said plowing under of green, immature crops adds fertility and makes other improvements in the soil.

The secretary went over various provisions of the new farm law and said the administration was disturbed by a provision directing it to sell up to five million bales of surplus cotton abroad this year at prices which officials consider to be too low.

London Policemen Guarding Queen

LONDON (AP) — Security men with telltale pistol bulges in their raincoats mingled with cheering London crowds today as Queen Elizabeth rode on horseback through sun-drenched streets to review her troops.

Hundreds of extra police were drafted into the city from outlying provinces and plainclothes detectives moved up and down the procession route on the watchout for three Cypriot gunmen reported to have slipped into England with assassination orders. In Britain policemen usually go unarmed.

The Traffic Death List Continues To Grow

Regardless of warnings and with tragic regularity the death and disaster traffic toll over weekends and holidays continued to grow.

Appeals to the common sense of many drivers seem to have little effect in reducing this annual destruction of life and property.

Perhaps some lives have been saved by these endless appeals to "slow down and live" but thousands of drivers still sacrifice their own and other people's lives by heedlessly operating on the theory—"it can't happen to me".

Regional conferences of the committee for traffic safety, appointed by President Eisenhower, were held throughout the nation, many days before Memorial Day.

In various ways delegates sought to do what this country's motorists so far have failed to do for themselves: reduce the slaughter of human lives on our highways.

While effective measures for reducing highway accidents and fatalities were discussed during the various committee deliberations, the major objective of the conference was aimed "to attract, stimulate, inform and assist those persons who can most effectively create, finance and conduct state and local citizens' traffic safety organizations." In effect the conference attempted to enlist citizen support for a drive to cut the highway accident and death toll.

According to National Safety Council Safety Council statistics, nearly three out of 10 drivers in fatal accidents have violated a speed law, 18 out of 100 have been drinking, seven out of 100 did not have the right of way, three out of 100 were guilty of passing improperly, three out of 100 have disregarded a stop sign, two out of 100 have not heeded a warning sign, one out of 100 have disregarded a signal or officer.

This citizen support is an absolute necessity if any reduction is to be made in the nation's unnecessary and costly traffic death list. No amount of engineering will eliminate accidents; nor is it possible to employ enough law enforcement officers to force motorists to adhere to traffic regulations.

The only way accidents can be reduced is for motorists to take upon themselves the responsibility for careful driving. Once they assume this obligation, and only then, can we expect to see a decline in highway fatalities.

He Rides Through Rainbows

By Hal Boyle

SYLVA, N. C. (AP)—Many men who dream a big dream and make it come true learn to their surprise that it isn't what they really wanted after all.

But what can they do? Most remain embittered prisoners of a phantom success they no longer enjoy but are afraid to give up.

It takes a good man to give up his hard-won position at the peak and fight back down the rocky road he has traveled in order to regain something finer he lost earlier on the way up.

Such a man is John Parris, the only reporter I can name offhand who covers his beat in his own Cadillac.

John's ancestors journeyed from the coastal plain into the mountains of western North Carolina along rude horse and oxen paths shortly after the American Revolution, and the family has put its roots down pretty deep here since then.

But John, who became a reporter at 13 and never encumbered his mind with college lumber, got a yearning for the far places. Like most small town newspapermen, he dreamed of becoming a top byline writer in the big city.

He did. Before he was 23 he was writing daily feature articles out of New York for a news agency.

But more distant fields called. John went to London during the blitz raids. He landed as a war correspondent with the initial Allied forces that invaded Africa on Nov. 8, 1942.

After the war, John returned to New York, became a diplomatic correspondent for the Associated Press and covered the birth and development of the United Nations. He scored a number of notable beats. Covering the homburg hat set and its intrigues was heady, exciting, important. Yet something, he didn't know what, was missing.

In 1946 he met and within five weeks married Dorothy Luxton, a pretty art teacher from Topeka, Kan. But he had the forethought to tell her when he proposed:

"Honey, you may have to learn to use a double-bitted ax to cut up wood to keep a fire going."

Soon after, his father, a jeweler here, died, and John took a leave of absence to come down and settle the estate.

"Almost as soon as I got here," he recalled, "I realized what was missing in my life. It was a kind of happiness I had known in the hills, and hadn't been able to find anywhere else."

It took a lot of courage for John to resign his job as a diplomatic correspondent at the United Nations and start his career all over in his old home town. It took a lot of understanding on his wife's part to back him. But she did.

It wasn't easy. John spent two years on a novel that didn't quite come off, but, as he says, "may yet."

But in 1950 he began promoting "Unto These Hills," a pioneer outdoor drama of the Cherokee Indians that this year may draw its millionth spectator. On top of this and some magazine writing chores John started writing a column called "Roaming the Hills" for the Asheville Citizen.

It spread faster than the rhododendron does in June. A book of his collected vignettes of mountain people and old mountain customs recently sold out a first edition printing of 10,000 copies in a few weeks. More books are in prospect.

Everywhere John goes in the mountains he is recognized and welcomed. He purrs his Cadillac 200 to 300 miles on an average day, and may ride through four rainbows. He never drove through a single rainbow on his way to work at the United Nations.

Quarrel Among Socialists Goes On

By George Sokolsky

What is becoming increasingly obvious is that when Bulganin and Khrushchev attended the Socialist meeting and dinner in London, he acted normally; that is, he acted as the Bolshevik boss is impelled to do among a lot of Mensheviks whom he despised as every Bolshevik despises every other kind of Socialist throughout the world. Khrushchev acted in precisely the same way with French Premier Mollet who is also a Socialist but not a communist.

When the Socialist Democratic Party of Russia split in 1903 into two branches, the Bolsheviks and the Mensheviks, the majority and the minority, a profound hatred developed between them unparalleled among other political parties. Trotsky, who had been a Menshevik prior to the Russian Revolution of 1917, never fully gained the confidence of the Bolsheviks even though Lenin made him the second man in the communist hierarchy.

The British Labour Party is a Socialist party consisting of Fabian Socialists Orthodox Second International Social Democrats, a few fellow-travellers who are sufficiently left-wing to be regarded as closer to the communist than they should be. To a Bolshevik boss, such as Khrushchev is, one whose lifework has been in the party apparatus, the very existence of such people is an offense. Therefore, he acted toward them with the bad manners that an underbred person displays when he finds himself in distasteful company.

The Russian communists have a particular contempt for the parliamentary system which they have never employed in their own or any satellite country. The last time that anything approaching such a body met in Russia was the Constituent Assembly in 1918 which the Bolsheviks forced to close down. The 20 Congresses of the Russian Communist Party have not been parliamentary in form because no opposition to the leadership is tolerated. It is almost possible to identify an American with communist leanings by his tendency to oppose the existence of the American Congress, although less is being said about that now than in the 1930's.

The British Socialists are parliamentarians who expect to achieve great social reforms within the limitations of the British constitution and by Parliamentary methods. Whether for better or for worse, they have been very successful and were in control of the British government from 1945 to 1951 when the Conservatives were returned.

Another point needs to be Great Britain, for about three centuries, dominated the world not only by superior arms but by unusual capacity in all branches of economy and an extraordinary feeling for order. The Russians look upon Great Britain now as a minor power whose empire has been broken and is historically lost. To a man of Khrushchev's training, Great Britain is, at most, a bridge to the United States and to the remaining countries of the capitalistic world. Among the capitalistic world, Khrushchev would include all non-communist countries even such as regard themselves as socialistic but are not Bolshevik.

To Khrushchev such countries as Red China and India are more important than Great Britain and France because of their enormous populations, their raw materials and their potentials in the formation of a complex for world conquest in the Marxist cause.

Those in Britain who believe that they can come to a permanent arrangement with Soviet Russia that can be favorable to Great Britain are only fooling themselves. Sir Anthony Eden seems to be pursuing a course which, while it might temporarily be embarrassing to the British Socialists and to the United States, must ultimately be permanently damaging to Great Britain and possibly to the whole Western world. For he is perhaps inadvertently encouraging the Russians to believe that they can accomplish a separation between Great Britain and the United States with a promise to lessen anti-British developments in the Far East and the Middle East. It may not be the 'beginning of the beginning," as Eden suggested; it could be the end of many things.

It is doubtful that Khrushchev can deliver anything helpful to Great Britain in the Cyprus, Egyptian, Singapore or Israel-Arab situations, but Khrushchev can and probably already is at work creating disturbances within the British Labour Party. In such activities, the Bolsheviks are virtuosi. Although such disorders could temporarily strengthen the capitalistic Conservatives, to a Bolshevik that is meaningless. They do not dislike Conservatives as much as they do different kinds of Socialists.

Quick Action Needed In Case Of Poisoning

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Weed killers and other gardening poisons can be found in most homes this time of the year.

These are just one group of poisons which you must protect your children against. Sleeping drugs are another—and there are many more.

Quick action is essential in any case of accidental poisoning. Labels of most poisons contain instructions for administering antidotes. Read the label even before you open the container—just to be prepared.

Some Steps

Here are some steps you should follow even before you take the time to find an antidote.

If someone in your home should swallow an overdose of any sleeping drug or liquor, or take any gardening or vermin extermination poison, iodine, arsenic, strychnine, Kerosene, wood or denatured alcohol, here's what you should do until the doctor arrives:

1—Force him to swallow large quantities of water containing baking soda or soapsuds (not detergent suds). If no soda or soap is immediately handy, make him drink a lot of lukewarm tap water. This helps to dilute the poison as well as induce vomiting.

2—Make the patient vomit repeatedly until the fluid is as clear as when it was swallowed.

3—Give him a dose of epsom salts—a glass of water containing one heaping teaspoonful.

4—Then give him any antidote which might be on the label of the bottle which contained the poison swallowed.

Sleeping Drugs

One more word about sleeping drugs.

If the patient has taken an overdoes of one of them, you should continue treatment after [illegible] the above procedures by giving him strong black coffee in easy doses. But be careful not to exhaust him.

Don't give coffee or any other stimulant to anyone who has swallowed strychnine.

QUESTIONU AND ANSWER

J. G.: What causes brown spots on the skin and what can be cone for them?

Answer: Brown spots are due to excessive pigmentation. Often these spots may be bleached out by the use of such ointment as ammoniated mercury.

However, this should be done by a physician since there is danger in the use of bleaching ointments.

Ohio School Lunch Costs: $24 Million

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio schools spent more than $24 million on the lunch program in the school year now ending.

R. M. Eyman, state superintendent of public instruction, said 1,691 schools are participating in the program which serves low-cost lunches daily to about 390,000 children.

Federal aid for the program this year totaled $2,139,834 with Department of Agriculture donated commodities having a wholesale value of $4 million.

WASHINGTON (AP)—"You did it when we weren't looking."

That is the complaint some senators made against the rest of the Senate for inserting—in the new superhighway program — a few sentences which, if they stand, may cause confusion for years.

It is true some weren't looking. Some weren't listening either. And some weren't there.

The Senate debated Monday, and 14 hours Tuesday, before approving a bill to create over the next 13 years a 40,000-mile network of superhighways costing the federal government about 25 billion dollars and the states about 2½ billions.

Since the federal government will pay most of the bill, Sen. Chavez (D-Nm) proposed the government should decide the wage rates for men who build the network. He said the secretary of labor should do the deciding.

This wasn't unusual. Under a law passed in 1931 the labor secretary decides wage rates for workers on projects paid for by the government. This applies to contracts for direct federal construction as well as to contracts for schools, hospitals, housing, airports and other facilities built with federal-aid funds.

The secretary decides what the prevailing rate is in the area for the same kind of work—in this case it would be roadbuilding—and says that should be the wage rate for the highway builder.

There were a lot of objections, particularly from Southern Democrats, including Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark).

Their arguments, boiled down, ran like this: What area would the secretary select as a yardstick? An area close to where a strip of highway is to be built or some city 100 miles away where wages might be higher? What would happen to the economy of a rural area if the secretary fixed wage rates for roadbuilders out of line with wages paid nearby farmhands? Would they wuit the farms to work on the roads?

Besides, so the arguments went, the labor secretary shouldn't have final say. The states—this was the states' rights argument — should have a voice in deciding rates.

Fulbright suggested it might be well to let anyone who disagreed with the labor secretary appeal to the courts. Opponents argued this might foul up the whole highway program, get it snarled in court fights all over the United States for years.

The Senate finally approved Chavez's idea; the labor secretary should decide the rates. But it was a day of confusion on the floor. And just about dinner time Fulbright got up again, proposing as an amendment to Chavez's proposal that anyone disagreeing with the secretary's wage rates could appeal to the courts.

The Senate quickly voted for this. Sometime later Sen. Douglas (D-Ill), an opponent of Fulbright's amendment, realized what had happened. He asked the Senate to reconsider.

He hadn't heard the amendment read, he said, because there was too much disorder on the floor at the time.

He said he doubted many senators knew what they were voting for. Sen. Morse (D-Ore) said he didn't know about it because he was out to dinner. Sen. Gore (D-Tenn) said he didn't realize it either. His back was turned at the time, he said.

The Senate let the Fulbright amendment stand. But the Senate bill differs from a similar measure passed by the House which said the labor secretary should decide wage rates but didn't provide for any appeal to the courts.

There can be no highway law until both houses iron out their differences. The Senate may bow to the House and agree to drop the Fulbright amendment.

The Traffic Death List Continues To Grow

Regardless of warnings and with tragic regularity the death and disaster traffic toll over weekends and holidays continued to grow.

Appeals to the common sense of many drivers seem to have little effect in reducing this annual destruction of life and property.

Perhaps some lives have been saved by these endless appeals to "slow down and live" but thousands of drivers still sacrifice their own and other people's lives by heedlessly operating on the theory—"it can't happen to me".

Regional conferences of the committee for traffic safety, appointed by President Eisenhower, were held throughout the nation, many days before Memorial Day.

In various ways delegates sought to do what this country's motorists so far have failed to do for themselves: reduce the slaughter of human lives on our highways.

While effective measures for reducing highway accidents and fatalities were discussed during the various committee deliberations, the major objective of the conference was aimed "to attract, stimulate, inform and assist those persons who can most effectively create, finance and conduct state and local citizens' traffic safety organizations." In effect the conference attempted to enlist citizen support for a drive to cut the highway accident and death toll.

According to National Safety Council Safety Council statistics, nearly three out of 10 drivers in fatal accidents have violated a speed law, 18 out of 100 have been drinking, seven out of 100 did not have the right of way, three out of 100 were guilty of passing improperly, three out of 100 have disregarded a stop sign, two out of 100 have not heeded a warning sign, one out of 100 have disregarded a signal or officer.

This citizen support is an absolute necessity if any reduction is to be made in the nation's unnecessary and costly traffic death list. No amount of engineering will eliminate accidents; nor is it possible to employ enough law enforcement officers to force motorists to adhere to traffic regulations.

The only way accidents can be reduced is for motorists to take upon themselves the responsibility for careful driving. Once they assume this obligation, and only then, can we expect to see a decline in highway fatalities.

He Rides Through Rainbows

By Hal Boyle

SYLVA, N. C. (AP)—Many men who dream a big dream and make it come true learn to their surprise that it isn't what they really wanted after all.

But what can they do? Most remain embittered prisoners of a phantom success they no longer enjoy but are afraid to give up.

It takes a good man to give up his hard-won position at the peak and fight back down the rocky road he has traveled in order to regain something finer he lost earlier on the way up.

Such a man is John Parris, the only reporter I can name offhand who covers his beat in his own Cadillac.

John's ancestors journeyed from the coastal plain into the mountains of western North Carolina along rude horse and oxen paths shortly after the American Revolution, and the family has put its roots down pretty deep here since then.

But John, who became a reporter at 13 and never encumbered his mind with college lumber, got a yearning for the far places. Like most small town newspapermen, he dreamed of becoming a top byline writer in the big city.

He did. Before he was 23 he was writing daily feature articles out of New York for a news agency.

But more distant fields called. John went to London during the blitz raids. He landed as a war correspondent with the initial Allied forces that invaded Africa on Nov. 8, 1942.

After the war, John returned to New York, became a diplomatic correspondent for the Associated Press and covered the birth and development of the United Nations. He scored a number of notable beats. Covering the homburg hat set and its intrigues was heady, exciting, important. Yet something, he didn't know what, was missing.

In 1946 he met and within five weeks married Dorothy Luxton, a pretty art teacher from Topeka, Kan. But he had the forethought to tell her when he proposed:

"Honey, you may have to learn to use a double-bitted ax to cut up wood to keep a fire going."

Soon after, his father, a jeweler here, died, and John took a leave of absence to come down and settle the estate.

"Almost as soon as I got here," he recalled, "I realized what was missing in my life. It was a kind of happiness I had known in the hills, and hadn't been able to find anywhere else."

It took a lot of courage for John to resign his job as a diplomatic correspondent at the United Nations and start his career all over in his old home town. It took a lot of understanding on his wife's part to back him. But she did.

It wasn't easy. John spent two years on a novel that didn't quite come off, but, as he says, "may yet."

But in 1950 he began promoting "Unto These Hills," a pioneer outdoor drama of the Cherokee Indians that this year may draw its millionth spectator. On top of this and some magazine writing chores John started writing a column called "Roaming the Hills" for the Asheville Citizen.

It spread faster than the rhododendron does in June. A book of his collected vignettes of mountain people and old mountain customs recently sold out a first edition printing of 10,000 copies in a few weeks. More books are in prospect.

Everywhere John goes in the mountains he is recognized and welcomed. He purrs his Cadillac 200 to 300 miles on an average day, and may ride through four rainbows. He never drove through a single rainbow on his way to work at the United Nations.

Quarrel Among Socialists Goes On

By George Sokolsky

What is becoming increasingly obvious is that when Bulganin and Khrushchev attended the Socialist meeting and dinner in London, he acted normally; that is, he acted as the Bolshevik boss is impelled to do among a lot of Mensheviks whom he despised as every Bolshevik despises every other kind of Socialist throughout the world. Khrushchev acted in precisely the same way with French Premier Mollet who is also a Socialist but not a communist.

When the Socialist Democratic Party of Russia split in 1903 into two branches, the Bolsheviks and the Mensheviks, the majority and the minority, a profound hatred developed between them unparalleled among other political parties. Trotsky, who had been a Menshevik prior to the Russian Revolution of 1917, never fully gained the confidence of the Bolsheviks even though Lenin made him the second man in the communist hierarchy.

The British Labour Party is a Socialist party consisting of Fabian Socialists, Orthodox Second International Social Democrats, a few fellow-travellers who are sufficiently left - wing to be regarded as closer to the communist than they should be. To a Bolshevik boss, such as Khrushchev is, one whose lifework has been in the party apparatus, the very existence of such people is an offense. Therefore, he acted toward them with the bad manners that an underbred person displays when he finds himself in distasteful company.

The Russian communists have a particular contempt for the parliamentary system which they have never employed in their own or any satellite country. The last time that anything approaching such a body met in Russia was the Constituent Assembly in 1918 which the Bolsheviks forced to close down. The 20 Congresses of the Russian Communist Party have not been parliamentary in form because no opposition to the leadership is tolerated. It is almost possible to identify an American with communist leanings by his tendency to oppose the existence of the American Congress, although less is being said about that now than in the 1930's.

The British Socialists are parliamentarians who expect to achieve great social reforms within the limitations of the British constitution and by Parliamentary methods. Whether for better or for worse, they have been very successful and were in control of the British government from 1945 to 1951 when the Conservatives were returned.

Another point needs to be Great Britain, for about three centuries, dominated the world not only by superior arms but by unusual capacity in all branches of economy and an extraordinary feeling for order. The Russians look upon Great Britain now as a minor power whose empire has been broken and is historically lost. To a man of Khrushchev's training, Great Britain is, at most, a bridge to the United States and to the remaining countries of the capitalistic world. Among the capitalistic world, Khrushchev would include all non-communist countries even such as regard themselves as socialistic but are not Bolshevik.

To Khrushchev such countries as Red China and India are more important than Great Britain and Frence because of their enormous populations, their raw materials and their potentials in the formation of a complex for world conquest in the Marxist cause.

Those in Britain who believe that they can come to a permanent arrangement with Soviet Russia that can be favorable to Great Britain are only fooling themselves. Sir Anthony Eden seems to be pursuing a course which, while it might temporarily be embarrassing to the British Socialists and to the United States, must ultimately be permanently damaging to Great Britain and possibly to the whole Western world. For he is perhaps inadvertently encouraging the Russians to believe that they can accomplish a separation between Great Britain and the United States with a promise to lessen anti-British developments in the Far East and the Middle East. It may not be the 'beginning of the beginning," as Eden suggested; it could be the end of many things.

It is doubtful that Khrushchev can deliver anything helpful to Great Britain in the Cyprus, Egyptian, Singapore or Israel - Arab situations, but Khrushchev can and probably already is at work creating disturbances within the British Labour Party. In such activities, the Bolsheviks are virtuosi. Although such disorders could temporarily strengthen the capitalistic Conservatives, to a Bolshevik that is meaningless. They do not dislike Conservatives as much as they do different kinds of Socialists.

Warning Given By Dr. B. V. Scott

Food Poisoning More Likely In Hot Months

Dr. Benton V. D. Scott, Fayette County Health Commissioner, today sounded a timely warning against food poisonings.

"The advent of warm weather makes it particularly important that careful attention be paid to the protection of foods if illness due to food poisoning is to be held to a minimum this summer." Dr Scott stated, "Despite the amount of educational efforts, dozens of people are stricken every year in epidemics traceable to poor food protection."

THE MOST common type of food poisoning which occurs each summer is that which is caused by a bacterial infection known as staphylococous. This bacteria or germ is very powerful since under certain conditions it can produce a deadly poison known as toxins.

"This particular bacteria is found almost everywhere," according to Dr. Scott. "It can be found in peoples' throats, on their skin, and particularly beneath fingernails. When food which has been contaminated by some of the more virulent strains of staphylococous is easten, illness is likely to occur. Symptoms include a feeling of weakness, abdominal pains, nausea, vomiting and cramps."

"Fortunately," continued Dr. Scott, "this type of food poisoning carries a low fatality rate but people affected with it are quite sick and do not forget it easily."

CERTAIN types of foods lend themselves to being a good breeding ground for staphylococous. The germ seems to grow best in starches and particularly in cream-filled bakery products. Other foods often found guilty in outbreaks of food poisoning include, ham, ground or chopped meats, cottage cheese, potato salad, custards, egg salad, and butter sauces. All these foods need special care at any time and particularly during warm weather.

"Most of our food poisoning outbreaks seem to occur in connection with out-door food festivals and picnics," Dr. Scott said. "People are prone to think that relatively long exposures to 80 - 90 degrees temperatures are not harmful. The delicate, although desirable picnic foods, are particularly susceptible to contamination. Unless they are protected by refrigeration, toxins may develop."

Concluding, Dr. Scott states, "the prevention of food poisoning due to staph infection is relatively simple if the following two measures are observed.

(1) — Persons known to be ill or having skin infections should not be permitted to prepare food.

(2) — Foods such as custards and prepared meats should be thoroughly cooked and then refrigerated below 50 degrees until serving time."

Fred Belles Enters Navy

Lawrence Fred Belles, 17, who enlisted in the Navy here, was on his way early Tuesday morning to the Fort Hayes Armed Forces Examination Station in Columbus for his physical examination.

Lawrence Fred Belles

Lawrence is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Belles of 415 East Court Street. He is a 1956 graduate of Washington High School, where he played basketball, football and baseball. He was voted the most courteous boy in his class, and was a vocal soloist at his graduation ceremonies just last week.

Chief Phillip G. Lee, in charge of the Navy Recruiting Station at the American Legion Hall, said that Lawrence enlisted under the Navy high school graduate program which will guarantee him a school in the hospital corpsman field of service.

Upon completion of his nine-weeks boot training, he will receive a 14-day leave to come home and visit his family and friends. After that, he will return to training school.

Franklin County Seeks Authority To Various Fees

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A search by the Franklin County prosecutor has failed to turn up statutes authorizing the collection of several types of county fees.

Prosecutor Samuel L. Devine said last night, however, that the investigation by his office is "far from complete."

Laws giving Franklin County the right to collect an estimated two million dollars in building inspection fees over the past 20 years are the particular object of the search, Devine said.

But there is also a question about the legality of fees collected for inspection of septic tanks and filing of rezoning applications, the prosecutor said.

"We must determine whether or not there is statutory authority for the county government to levy such fees," he added.

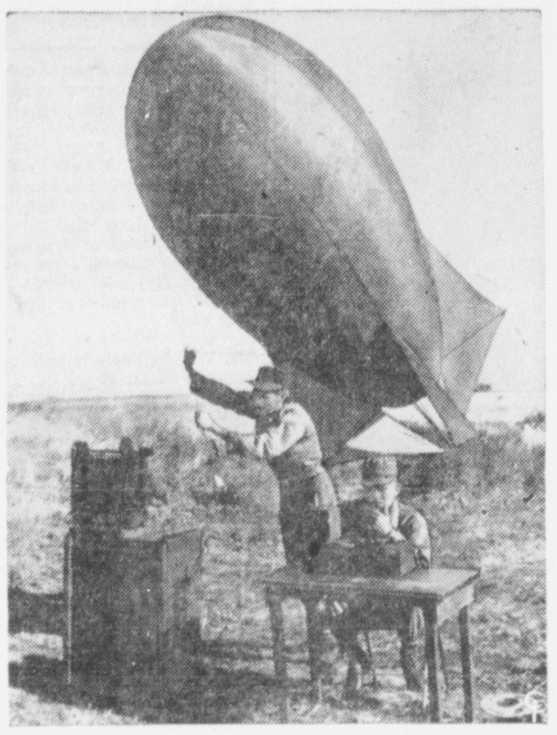

Devine indicated that other counties may have a similar problem.

Gamblers Failing To Buy US Stamps

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland gamblers are not doing right by their Uncle Sammy in the matter of buying the $50 stamps required of their ilk.

Out of 2,275 arrests of gamblers and policy slip writers here in the last 29 months, only 28 individuals had purchased the federal gambling stamps.

Law requires any person engaged in professional gambling to buy a stamp each year. Each holder must make monthly reports to the Internal Revenue Bureau and pay 10 per cent tax on his gross take.

Philippine Scout Benefits Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Legion has asked Congress to restore wartime pay for Philippine Scouts who were paroled from Japanese prisoner of war camps during World War II.

The Army "had no right under any law" to refuse to pay the scouts, C. H. Olson, assistant Legion legislative director, told a House armed services subcommittee.

Another witness, the Rev. John E. Duffy of New London, Ohio, a past Legion national chaplain, said he knew the scouts as "fellow soldiers and fellow prisoners of war." He said they are entitled to their pay, to reinstatement in the army, and to all the benefits of any regular soldier.

Warning Given By Dr. B. V. Scott

Food Poisoning More Likely In Hot Months

Dr. Benton V. D. Scott, Fayette County Health Commissioner, today sounded a timely warning against food poisonings.

"The advent of warm weather makes it particularly important that careful attention be paid to the protection of foods if illness due to food poisoning is to be held to a minimum this summer." Dr. Scott stated, "Despite the amount of educational efforts, dozens of people are stricken every year in epidemics traceable to poor food protection."

Mrs. Hurtt Is Hostess To Class Members

Members of the Shepherd's Bible Class of First Baptist Church assembled at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hurtt Tuesday evening for the May meeting.

Mrs. Ernest Evans, vice president, called the meeting to order, and the singing of a hymn was followed with devotions led by Mrs. Robert James, who used as her topic "The Greatest Thing In The World, Which is Love" reading Scripture from Corinthians, an article explaining the meaning of the topic, and closed with the praying of the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Evans presided over the brief business session during which the usual reports were given and special reports included thirteen calls made during the month.

Mrs. Everett Arnold offered prayer to close the meeting and Miss Bertha Graves, program chairman conducted a contest.

During the social hour following, Mrs. Hurtt was assisted in the serving of seasonal refreshments by Mrs. Jeannette Lindsey, Mrs. Edythe Miller and Mrs. Homer Rose.

Monroe, Now A Corporation, Becomes Very Incommunicado

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Bus Stop" is just about wheezing to the end of the line.

Principal photography on the picture is finished and a few odds and ends are being put together this week. This intelligence is offered for those who want to keep tabs on the movements of Marilyn Monroe. Judging from the deluge of propaganda in the national magazines, their number is legion.

"Bus Stop" has been one of the more bizarre of film projects, partly because of the changed status of Monroe. She left the lot a year ago a contract player and returned a corporation.

Being incorporated, she naturally needs officers. Most notable is Milton Greene, a magazine potographer who now acts as buffer for President Monroe. Vice President Greene is in constant attendance to sift requests and messages for Monroe. He is turn has his own buffer, who sifts requests and messages for Greene.

Getting to Monroe is about as easy as reaching Howard Hughes, though not as hard as seeking out Greta Garbo. One Hollywood columnist traveled all the way to Phoenix without seeing her. Since her illness, which was genuine, she has been incommunicado to the press.

"Gee,' sighed one press agent, "I can remember when she was first on this lot. She was always hanging around my office. We couldn't get her out of the publicity department."

Nowadays, the publicity department can't get to her. For three weeks, the "Bus Stop" publicist, Roy Craft, was barred from his own set!

The reason for this step, unprecedented in Hollywood, was to get the picture over with no further delays. Illness and weather had plagued the production from the start.

The publicity minds weren't bothered by the ban. The picture is presold by the biggest magazine splash in recent memory. Besides, you don't have to publicize Monroe. She seems to have an uncommon knack for attracting the headlines, no matter what she does.

For instance, when she was bedded with the flu, an English paper suggested that she might have TB. This created a furor in the British press, with some quarters demanding to see chest X-rays as proof she is not afflicted. (She isn't). The studio had to use all its diplomacy to decline such requests.

According to various of her buffers, Marilyn will be leaving for New York as soon as she finished up her work in the picture.

Homemade 'Saw' Leads To Escape

WOODSFIELD (AP)—Two Monroe County jail inmates fashioned a saw out of a knife to engineer an escape early today.

Alfred Mellott, 22, of Clarington, held as a parole violator, and Paul Eckleberry, 24, held on petit larceny charges, fled about 3 a. m.

Authorities said the two sawed a bar from their first floor cell, which opened into the jail proper, and unlocked a door to the second floor quarters with a key obtained from the jail office. The door was left open for seven prisoners on the second floor to walk to liberty, but apparently these inmates were unaware the door had been unlocked.

Greek Chief's Stand Stiffly Anti-British

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Greece's new foreign minister Evanghelos Averoff says he will work with "unflinching determination" to end British rule of Cyprus and to secure the return of Archbishop Makarios from British exile.

Averoff was named to head the Foreign Ministry after Spyros Theotokis resigned. Opposition politicians accused Theotokis of pro-British sentiments.

"We will use all appropriate means for achieving satisfaction and the liberation of Archbishop Makarios," Averoff said in a statement of policy. The British have confined Makarios, Greek Orthodox archbishop of Cyprus and in the Cypriot struggle for freedom leader of the movement to unite the island with Greece, on an island of the Seychelles group in the Indian Ocean.

Averoff said he would continue the government's foreign policy, "which coincides with the viewpoints of most political parties of Greece." He has served as undersecretary for foreign affairs in previous Greek governments and is regarded as anti-British.

On Cyprus, British troops were ordered to build a permanent barbed-wire barricade through the heart of Nicosia in a move to prevent clashes between the Greek and Turkish communities. Temporary barbed-wire barriers between the island capital's Greek and Turkish quarters have been credited with keeping intercommunal disorders from spreading.

Housewife Is Given Credit In Exposing Trojan 'Fund'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The detective work of a housewife is credited with disclosing reported over-the-limit payments to University ot Southern California athletes

Mrs. Adele Erenberg said this week she found out about the Southern California Educational Foundation fund because she wanted to join the foundation "to help our schools in some way." She is a PTA worker and the mother of two pre-college children.

Her findings were turned over to Dep. Dist. Atty. J. Miller Leavy, a UCLA alumnus, who announced last week the USC boosters had been helping athletes

Previously the Pacific Coast Conference had handed UCLA a three-year probation and heavy fine for aid to athletes exceeding the $75 monthly allowed by the conference.

Mrs. Erenberg said she had known about the foundation for nearly three years but didn't do anything about it until the crackdown on UCLA.

"That was an unjust, discriminationatory thing," she said.

She told Mirror-News Sports Writer Jack Tobin she found out about the foundation when State Assemblyman Joe Shell, a Los Angeles Republican, listed it as one of his activities in a 1953 election brochure.

"Mr. Shell listed his affiliations as being a former SC football captain, past president of the Trojan Club and trustee of the Southern California Educational Foundation," she said.

"I'd heard of the citizens for the public schools but never of this foundation. I wanted to join or help in some way. Telephone information had no listing so I called Mr. Shell's campaign headquarters.

"When I explained I wanted information on the foundation, he told me it was founded on the campus at SC to help students who could not continue to go without assistance.

"After a few minutes he became evasive. His answers didn't add up. He talked almost an hour. That aroused by curiosity." It wasn't that important. He overemphasized his interest so much I wouldn't let it drop."

She called the university next, she said, and learned from Alumni Secretary Bob Moneish, another ex-SC gridder, that the organization was not connected with the campus. McNeish became agitated, she said, and had Shell call her back.

She told Shell since it was a nonprofit foundation and its records were in the public domain she planned to find out more about it.

Next day she called at the internal revenue office and was permitted to look at the foundation's 1951-52-53 returns.

"I wasn't a sports fan and the names on the disbursement schedule meant nothing to me," she said. "I remember the first name was Carmichael and he had received $650. I looked the list over and would have returned it without another thought until the last name. It was a girl. The only girl and she got only $15."

She asked the clerk if the names on the list meant anything to him. He laughed and said, "You are now reading the list of the entire SC varsity football team." Who the girl was, she never learned.

Mrs. Erenberg said she "didn't want to get any student in trouble" but copied the file number and all information she wanted about the returns.

She said she offered the material to Shell's asssembly opponent tl.at year but he declined to use it. Shell was elected and Mrs. Erenberg forgot about the foundation until the PCC rapped UCLA.

She then tried to call UCLA Coach Red Sanders and left her name and number with his secretary. Her call was returned by Bob Fischer, executive manager of the Young Men's Club of Westwood, a Bruin booster group.

Fischer took her information and relayed it to Leavy.

Mrs. Erenberg, whose husband attended the University of Chicago, is not a UCLA graduate. She left school after graduating from Hollywood High.

Assemblyman Shell said he couldn't recall any conversations with Mrs. Erenberg, adding, "I get all kinds of calls, as any man in public life does."

Housewife Is Given Credit In Exposing Trojan 'Fund'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The detective work of a housewife is credited with disclosing reported over-the-limit payments to University ot Southern California athletes.

Mrs. Adele Erenberg said this week she found out about the Southern California Educational Foundation fund because she wanted to join the foundation "to help our schools in some way." She is a PTA worker and the mother of two pre-college children.

Her findings were turned over to Dep. Dist. Atty. J. Miller Leavy, a UCLA alumnus, who announced last week the USC boosters had been helping athletes.

Previously the Pacific Coast Conference had handed UCLA a three-year probation and heavy fine for aid to athletes exceeding the $75 monthly allowed by the conference.

Mrs. Erenberg said she had known about the foundation for nearly three years but didn't do anything about it until the crackdown on UCLA.

"That was an unjust, discriminationatory thing," she said.

She told Mirror-News Sports Writer Jack Tobin she found out about the foundation when State Assemblyman Joe Shell, a Los Angeles Republican, listed it as one of his activities in a 1953 election brochure.

"Mr. Shell listed his affiliations as being a former SC football captain, past president of the Trojan Club and trustee of the Southern California Educational Foundation," she said.

"I'd heard of the citizens for the public schools but never of this foundation. I wanted to join or help in some way. Telephone information had no listing so I called Mr. Shell's campaign headquarters.

"When I explained I wanted information on the foundation, he told me it was founded on the campus at SC to help students who could not continue to go without assistance.

"After a few minutes he became evasive. His answers didn't add up. He talked almost an hour. That aroused by curiosity. It wasn't that important. He overemphasized his interest so much I wouldn't let it drop."

She called the university next, she said, and learned from Alumni Secretary Bob Moneish, another ex-SC gridder, that the organization was not connected with the campus. McNeish became agitated, she said, and had Shell call her back.

She told Shell since it was a nonprofit foundation and its records were in the public domain she planned to find out more about it.

Next day she called at the internal revenue office and was permitted to look at the foundation's 1951-52-53 returns.

"I wasn't a sports fan and the names on the disbursement schedule meant nothing to me," she said. "I remember the first name was Carmichael and he had received $650. I looked the list over and would have returned it without another thought until the last name. It was a girl. The only girl and she got only $15."

She asked the clerk if the names on the list meant anything to him. He laughed and said, "You are now reading the list of the entire SC varsity football team." Who the girl was, she never learned.

Mrs. Erenberg said she "didn't want to get any student in trouble" but copied the file number and all information she wanted about the returns.

She said she offered the material to Shell's asssembly opponent that year but he declined to use it. Shell was elected and Mrs. Erenberg forgot about the foundation until the PCC rapped UCLA.

She then tried to call UCLA Coach Red Sanders and left her name and number with his secretary. Her call was returned by Bob Fischer, executive manager of the Young Men's Club of Westwood, a Bruin booster group.

Fischer took her information and relayed it to Leavy.

Assemblyman Shell said he couldn't recall any conversations with Mrs. Erenberg, adding, "I get all kinds of calls, as any man in public life does."

Officers Investigate Cause Of Fatal Alliance Wreck

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—Red lights flashed at the crossing, the diesel locomotive's horn sounded, but the big tractor-trailer rolled onto the grade crossing and into the side of the speeding engine. Why?

That's what Portage County sheriff's deputies and state highway patrolmen asked today in a follow-up investigation of a spectacular wreck in which three men were killed Monday at nearby Atwater.

Andrew Nappi, 27, of Akron, who drove the truck, was one of the dead.

Did the morning sun blind the eastbound driver so he could not see the warning lights? That was a point police were checking. The driver of a rig following Nappi's said he saw the signal flashing danger.

Was Nappi unable to stop at the grade crossing of Ohio 224, or was he unaware of the crossing until much too late? The answer probably died with him.

The smash-up involved the passenger train "the steeler" which runs from Pittsburgh to Cleveland. It collided first with the truck and then with the two-story frame feed mill of the Portage County Farm Bureau alongside the tracks.

The other two killed were a brakeman, Arthur J. Fisher, 45, of Pittsburgh, who was in one of the train's coaches, and a farmer, Charles E. Fouser, 41, who was in the building.

Traffic on the Pennsylvania railroad's main line between Pittsburgh and Cleveland was back to normal early today, some 14 hours after the wreck.

Only one of seven injured persons remained in a hospital here overnight—F. Kermit Donaldson, 55, of Alliance, executive secretary of the Steel Foundries Society of America. Donaldson, who said he has been in five train accidents in recent years, was under treatment for shock.

14 Students Draw Penalties In Raid

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Fourteen University of California students who joined in riotous panty raids May 16 have been stuck with penalties ranging from dismissal to censure.

Dismissal was recommended for one student and half-year suspensions for two. Two seniors were removed from the graduation list.

Officials estimated $10,000 damage to women's dorms and clothing. Two thousand men joined in the night raid.

Dad Of 'Aquatots' Ruled As Insane; To Enter Hospital

RAIFORD, Fla. (AP)—Russell Tongay has been ruled insane and will be transferred from prison to a state hospital.

The former Miami swimming instructor, serving 10 years for the death of his 5-year-old Aquatot daughter Kathy, is a maniac-depressive with suicidal tendencies, according to the order committing him to the hospital.

Warden DeWitt Sinclair said Tongay, now 39, has been a "very troublesome prisoner" since being confined to prison in 1954.

Tongay, a former Coast Guardsman, was convicted on a charge that he forced Kathy to make a 33-foot dive that fatally injured her. Kathy and her brother Bubba performed at swimming exhibitions over the country under the billing "Aquatots."

June Slated To Be Exciting For Business

Month Due To Open With Idle Pay Plan; Strike May Close It

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — When June comes bursting out all over Friday it ought to start an exciting 30 days for business.

The month opens with a test of the new layoff pay plan for auto workers — now idle in large numbers. The month will close with a showdown on the threat of a strike that now hangs over the steel industry.

All this comes on the heels of a spring that suffered from a split personality.

Part of the economy went booming right along and many a business and many an employe felt that times were good indeed. But the soft spots kept getting softer.

As June starts there's considerable dispute as to which will get the upper hand. Will weakness spread from industry to industry? or will the hard spots in the economy pull the rest up to them in time?

June will see college graduates going to opportunities that seem fabulous to the depression generation. Industry competes for their services where 20 years ago the graduate searched hard for any job. Now they will start off making as much in a week as the older generation made in a month.

June will see retailers doing their best to work up love and tangible affection for dad on Father's Day. Presents for the June bride, merchants hope, will be more generous than ever — and also for the crop of graduates.

But all won't be roses. The business world is at the name calling stage in the dispute over monetary policy — should money be cheap and credit easy or tight and interest rates high? Some think June will see a turning point in money management.

But most eyes will be on Detroit and Pittsburgh as the month starts. Friday auto workers laid off in May, or to be laid off hereafter, will be eligible for supplemental unemployment benefits. In and out of the industry people will be interested in how it works out; how long the trust funds will last; how the laid off workers will take it if the extra payments aren't as large as they expected. And the nation will watch to see if the auto slowdown spreads further.

Monday the unions and the steel executives started bargaining. The month will tell whether there's a strike, a "reasonable" contract, or a new wage scale and price hike large enough to start an inflationary spiral in other industries.

There may be a lot of rare days this June.

ROBERT SCHRECKENBERG (top) is being held by Chicago police in connection with the fatal shooting of his wife, Dorothie (bottom), in their suburban home. Mrs. Schreckenberg, who had been in extreme pain after a prolonged illness, was shot to death in her bedroom. A note, allegedly written by the victim, was turned over to police by an unidentified woman. The note said in part: "If I die suddenly from wounds, they will not be self-inflicted." (International)

Comanche Chief's Widow Visits Grave

CACHE, Okla. (AP) — Quanah Parker was remembered Wednesday by Topay, the last surviving widow of the famed Comanche Indian chief.

The old and crippled Indian woman visited Parker's grave and said she is "looking forward to joining him." The great chief died 45 years ago, but Topay, the last of his eight wives, has lost track of her age. She admits to having married Parker when she was 25.

Ohioan Elected

BOLTON LANDING, N. Y. (AP)— Charles A. Jones of Columbus, Ohio, was elected secretary-general of the Sons of the American Revolution at the group's 66th annual congress here yesterday.

Mary Pickford Knicked By Bullet

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Mary Pickford, sweetheart of the silent screen, has disclosed that a bullet grazed her head when a pistol was accidentally discharged.

The former actress made light of an incident she said took place Saturday night as she and her husband, producer Buddy Rogers, were returning home with Marion Davies and the latter's husband, Capt. Horace Brown.

Miss Pickford said that Brown, formerly of the Merchant Marine, was showing his pistol to Rogers when he slipped in a spot of oil in the driveway.

The gun discharged, she reported, and the bullet ricocheted from the driveway to her forehead. A doctor treated Miss Pickford for a slight abrasion.

Area Master Plan

of 10,000 vehicles (cars and huge trucks) daily through the heart of the city.

To achieve the second, the beautification of Paint Creek's course, the plan was left to normal procedures without specific recommendations. The suggestion that Paint Creek be utilized for an elongated park and recreation area brought snickers from the gathering, to most of whom the memories of summer stench and contamination were unforgettable.

The plan also included an area of apartment buildings close to the center of the city, and four residential areas within the natural boundaries of the creek and main highways. The plan also recommended two industrial development areas—one on the northwest perimeter and the other on the northwest. This was the key to the industrial development.

And in this connection, it was pointed out that the Ohio Valley is now in the throes of an industrial influx that is posing problems for many cities and towns. To avoid these problems, it was said the master, of comprehensive, plan is important.

RICHARD TRAVIS, who acted as the principal spokesman for the group that drew it up, brought the presentation to a close with an 11 point summary:

(1) To create a system of streets and roads that will maintain the present excellent external connections to surrounding communities and improve the internal functioning of the system and eliminate hazardous traffic conditions in the city;

(2) To provide the opportunity for incoming industry to purchase good, large developable tracts outside the city, thus encouraging industry to seek out Washington C. H.;

(3) To create an atmosphere of progress and beauty;

(4) To provide adequate land for schools in residential areas, with enough land to expansion and playground facilities;

(5) Consolidate facilities down town to maintain Washington C. H. as a regional shopping center.

(6) To group neighborhood shopping facilities into centrally located neighborhood areas to complement the central shopping area and remove the blight of scattered stores in residential sections;

(7) To enlarge the pleasant park system and make better use of the city's best natural feature, Paint Creek;

(8) To provide opportunity for existing industry to locate new plants in the industrial area that will provide all the advantages of utility service and transportation facilities;

(9) To plan a future civic and governmental center for city and county buildings;

(10) To regularize the city's perimeter, providing ample areas for residential development and consolidating the pattern of public utilities;

(11) To create within the city neighborhoods grouped school and small shopping areas.

Although it was not included in the summary, the importance of automobile parking facilities in the business area was stressed several times during the presentation of the plan.

AT THE CLOSE of the meeting the maps and charts were laid out on the long tables on which two hours before had been loaded with the chicken dinner. Many of those who had watched the same charts projected on the screen, took advantage of an opportunity to get a closer look at the details drawings while the young men, who had made them after a year's research and study, explained them in more detail.

With Travis of Oxford here to help present the plan were six of the graduates who had put it together. They were Carl Lindbloom, Elizabeth, N. J.; Lemehan Hasdin, Bangkok, Thailand; Daniel Ziegler, Fort Thomas, Ky.; Don Slade Berkeley, Calif. and Robert Barraclough, Wellington, New Zealand.

Charles Reinke, the retiring president of the Chamber, acted as the master of ceremonies for the evening. Father Richard J. Connelly, pastor of St. Colman's Catholic Church, delivered the invocation befor the banquet.

After the banquet, Tom Mark, the first vice president, introduced the Chamber directors; Bob Callison, the president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Osman King, the chairman of the Union Township zoning board, which it was assumed had a vital interest in the area development. King introduced two other members of the board, Frank Weade and Joe White.

Bill Stoughton, the manager of the Chamber, gave a brief financial report for the treasurer, John Breiner, who was unable to attend the meeting. He said that while the chamber was "in the red" this time last year and was forced to raise dues from $25 to $30 per member, it now had a balance of $1,645 that was accumulated through judicious operations.

IN HIS "report of activities," Reinke cited the Chamber's part in defeating the CIO-sponsored legislature to increase jobless pay, the Green Pastures program, the Christmas decorations, safety campaigns, the weighmaster program designed to save farmers and elevators money in marketing their grain, the Industrial Development Committee's accomplishments, Business-Industry-education Day for high school seniors, efforts to get insurance rate reductions and solicitation control which blocked at least 50 solicitation attempts.

The graduate students who presented the master plan were introduced by Walter Morrow, head of the Industrial Development Committee.

Just before the close of the meeting, City Manager James F. Parkinson, complimented the School of City Design and the students who had prepared the master plan under Prof. Frankel's direction. He said the plan gave community a goal for long-range planning that could be of real value in charting the course of development for the Washington C. H. area.

Rotary Enjoys Double Feature Here Tuesday

Methodist Pastor Speaks And Danny Schlichter Gets Plaque

A pleasing program which amounted to a double feature at Tuesday's Rotary luncheon at the Country Club was commented upon by Rotarians and guests as being one of the outstanding club events of the year.

First was the formal presentation, in behalf of the club, of a bronze plaque by Rotary President Paul Dougherty to Danny A. Schlichter. The award also carried with it a $100 U. S. government bond.

THE HONOR accorded this young Washington High School graduate was cited as being due to the choice of Schlichter as a graduating student who exemplified the Rotarian motto "Service Above Self."

Previous to Dougherty's presentation, the reasons for selection of this young man for the award were outlined in detail by Don Wood, head of the local Rotary Youth Committee. These qualifications, together with a picture of the presentation, are carried elsewhere in this issue of the Record-Herald.

The presentation was greeted with enthusiastic applause and Schlichter, a very modest young man, proved very gracious in his brief "thank you" response.

FOLLOWING that, the club enjoyed the unusual incident of the formal acceptance of a new member at this meeting, who later in the program also was the featured speaker of the day in delivery of the annual Rotary address in observance of Memorial Day.

This new member and speaker was Rev. L. J. Poe, who recently became the new pastor of Grace Methodist Church here. President Paul Dougherty welcomed him into the club.

Ralph Penn presented Rev. Mr. Poe as the speaker and said that among some of the important posts which this minister held during his former pastorate in Cincinnati were: Member of Ohio Conference Board of Education for the past three years; former president of Greater Cincinnati Methodist Ministers' Association; Ohio Conference Youth Adult Director for three years; a member of the Cincinnati District Staff of Christian Education for the past ten years; former dean of Cincinnati District Summer Institute; president of the Ohio Conference Credit Union.

In opening his address Rev. Mr. Poe declared that "in the serious obligation which Memorial Day places upon all of us the holiday-minded public needs to be halted long enough to hear and heed the prayer at Gettysburg, the inscription at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and the unspoken word of all relatives of our war dead."

Continuing the speaker said in part "could all our millions of war-dead around the world speak, they would speak one language to the effect "We fought for the right and, we this day come to honor these men who fought and died for 'The Right' so that tomorrow could be a better place in which to live, a better place in which to raise our families. A future better-life comes because some are willing to fight for and die for that right."

THE STORY of reform is the story of quiet persistence. Any plan which attempts the sudden overthrow of the old and the complete substitution of the new is almost certain to introduce as much evil as good. All panaceas which assume that by passing a law the economic problems of men may be solved should be looked upon with suspicion. Reform does not really take place until it has somehow grown into the hearts of people. This means that a strong, continuous, undiscourageable persistence must be applied.

"It is here that Christianity and Communism part company, so far as goals are concerned. It is apparent that Christianity and Communism have much in common. Both advocate a society of Justice and equality. But how different are the methods. Communism says to Christianity, 'Your method is too slow. You have been at the job for centuries, and see how far from the goal you are. We cannot wait.' But Christianity will reply, 'If God can wait, so can we. We know our method is slow but it is only one that promises ultimate success. The kingdom of light can be established only when there are enough people prepared to hold it up. Otherwise, you only trade one tyranny for another.' "

IN TOUCHING upon the patriotic meaning implied in our Memorial Day observance, the speaker said "Patriotism is something we live — not cried out. A young American watching a parade in Paris during the First World's War noticed that the people were unusually silent. After it was over they dispersed quietly with tears showing in their eyes. Wrote the young man 'Patriotism is lived not cried out.' Real patriotism is deep and tolerant because it rests upon the certainties which time cannot destroy.

"Here, then, is the test of any idea or program for which we might give our life's blood: Can it last? Can hate outlast the spirit of brotherhood? Hatred is powerful for a time. . . . .but at the end the day its force is spent. . . .while the idea of brotherhood of men becomes stronger with time. Can tyranny last longer than democracy? It does seem more effective at times and makes democracy appear weak and stumbling. But the dictators look good until the last few minutes while democracy's strength grows with the years."

AS HE reached his conclusion, Rev. Mr. Poe declared that "It is the right in man that we honor." Then he added, "Before men become too critical of this philosophy let it be remembered that it has lasted. Civilizations and societies have smashed, but the right has been able to last. That is not because we have always had adequate leadership or because it is full of perfect people; it is because this life has never lost its complete purpose. The future always belongs to the right.

"In many places big clubs are being wielded by small minds trying to hold back the dawn. Big clubs and small minds have sought to stamp out truth in our civilization— but it cannot be held back. IT'S THE RIGHT IN MAN WE HONOR. . . .we honor those who have had faith in the future, who have fought and died to light the horizons of our civilization that tomorrow might be a brighter day."

When the speaker ended his address President Dougherty responded by declaring that "this is one of the most inspirational talks this club ever has heard". He cordially thanked the speaker and told him that as a member of Rotary he could expect to be called upon often.

DURING THE business session of the club Robert Green, outgoing president of the Washington Park Association, was called upon for a report of the past year's success in the handling of the swimming pool and park.

He gave a detailed financial resume which showed that the organization, which has been Rotary sponsored, finished its work for 1955 with a cash balance (now in part invested in bonds) of $7,254.30.

Dougherty praised the work of the directors who have made the park a success and declared that it is expected that the successful progress will continue. The organization in the year ahead will have B. M. (Mac) Marlin as its head official.

Three Rotarians heard the birthday greeting song and contributed to the club's youth fund. They were Walter S. Morrow, Ray Brandenburg and Supt. W. A. Smith.

Visiting Rotarians were: Roy Vandegriff, J. A. Duncan, H. Tennenbaum, and Dr. Walter Felson, all of Greenfield.

Other visitors were High School Principal John Trace who was with Supt. W. A. Smith, Don Moore with Dr. S. B. Smith and John Sherwood of Logan with Robert Lisk.

Lucy and Desi Arnez are coming to Washington C. H. in a Technicolor motion picture, "Forever Darling," which has been booked for the 3C Drive-In Theater for Sunday and Monday. On the same bill will be a Western thriller, "The Treasure of Pancho Villa," with Rory Calhoun in the leading role.

Idle Pay Claims Showing Increase

COLUMBUS (AP)—New claimants for unemployment compensation increased to 7,795 in the week ended May 26, the state bureau of unemployment compensation reports. Claimants for the previous week totaled 7,408.

The BUC said old claimants, those unemployed one week or more, dropped from 46,171 to 45,420 in the two-week period.

The average number of new claimants in May 1955 was 6,462 and old claimants 45,341.

Driver Analysis Controls Traffic

Motorists Are Kept In Line By Laws

By BRIAN DUFF

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Ninety-six thousand California drivers got a polite letter from the state last year.

It warned: "Improve your driving or risk losing your license".

Three out of four of the 96,000 took the hint. The 25 percent who didn't soon began to feel the weight of the State Department of Motor Vehicle's program of driver improvement.

The department exercised its discretionary power over California's 6,600,000 drivers and took nearly 14,000 of them off the road for varying lengths of time.

The suspension or revocation of license usually came after at least one, and perhaps several, personal interviews with the division's 40 roving driver analysts.

But whatever the action, it was the least severe the analyst felt would straighten out the driver.

"We're not here to punish people —that's a job for the courts," said Fred Williams, licensing division chief.

"We want to keep as many drivers as possible on the road but make sure that they drive safely."

The department revoked 6,610 licenses last year, suspended nearly 7,000 others and put 17,000 drivers on probation.

IN ADDITION, the courts ordered over 5,000 revocations and some 20,000 suspensions. Other drivers lost their licenses under provisions of state law which provide a mandatory penalty for certain offenses.

But almost no driver lost his license for life. The judges can't order a permanent revocation. Neither can the department.

The normal revocation lasts one year. At the end of that time the driver can re-apply. If he has no new blots on his record he gets it back.

The closest thing to a permanent suspension is one which sets a condition which must be met before re-licensing. The condition might be proof of financial responsibility or that a physical handicap to driving has been overcome. In the case of some disabilities the condition has the effect of a permanent suspension.

OTHER states have driver improvement programs. Technically they are called "post-licensing control." They attempt to reach the driver who slipped through the screening when the license was issued . . . . or whose driving has since deteriorated.

But in California the important thing is discretion. Nothing is automatic. It doesn't follow that three speeding tickets mean a 60-day suspension unless the analyst thinks it's necessary.

"We think we have our best success with the young drivers," says supervising driving analyst, Ronald Thunin. "Most of them sincerely want to improve."

Another thing that makes the analysts happy is the expanding driver training programs in high schools.

"The high school driving teachers get the youngsters when they want to learn and before some well-meaning adult has passed all his bad driving habits along to them," Thunin says.

"ITS SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD."

3 Ohio Postal Units Being Eyed

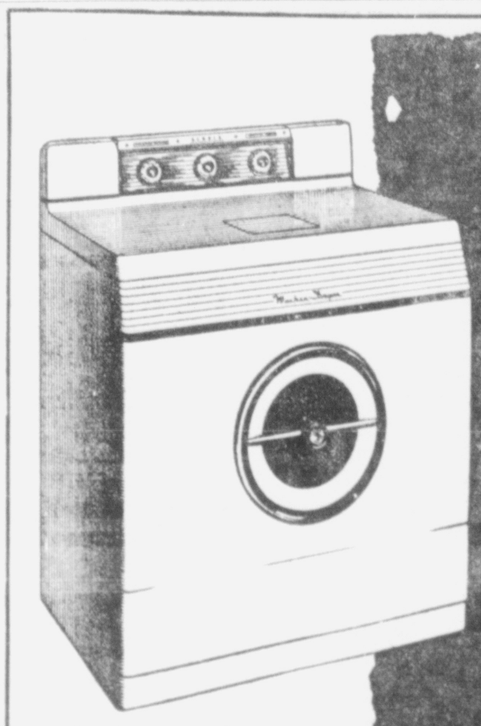

WASHINGTON (AP)—Post offices in Warren, Youngstown and Cleveland are being inspected today by staff investigators of a House Government Operations subcommittee.

An aide said they want to discover whether the post office department violated regulations in purchasing vehicles from Twin Coach Co., Kent, Ohio.

The vehicles were purchased on an experimental basis and include "standup trucks," in which the driver stands.

The committee, headed by Rep. Mollohan (D-W. Va.), plans to open hearings on post office procurement policies Monday.

"We're not here to punish people —that's a job for the courts," said Fred Williams, licensing division chief.

"We want to keep as many drivers as possible on the road but make sure that they drive safely."

The department revoked 6,610 licenses last year, suspended nearly 7,000 others and put 17,000 drivers on probation.

IN ADDITION, the courts ordered over 5,000 revocations and some 20,000 suspensions. Other drivers lost their licenses under provisions of state law which provide a mandatory penalty for certain offenses.

But almost no driver lost his license for life. The judges can't order a permanent revocation. Neither can the department.

The normal revocation lasts one year. At the end of that time the driver can re-apply. If he has no new blots on his record he gets it back.

The closest thing to a permanent suspension is one which sets a condition which must be met before re-licensing. The condition might be proof of financial responsibility or that a physical handicap to driving has been overcome. In the case of some disabilities the condition has the effect of a permanent suspension.

OTHER states have driver improvement programs. Technically they are called "post-licensing control." They attempt to reach the driver who slipped through the screening when the license was issued . . . or whose driving has since deteriorated.

But in California the important thing is discretion. Nothing is automatic. It doesn't follow that three speeding tickets mean a 60-day suspension unless the analyst thinks it's necessary.

"We think we have our best success with the young drivers," says supervising driving analyst, Ronald Thunin. "Most of them sincerely want to improve."

Another thing that makes the analysts happy is the expanding driver training programs in high schools.

"The high school driving teachers get the youngsters when they want to learn and before some well-meaning adult has passed all his bad driving habits along to them," Thunin says.

"ITS SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD."

3 Ohio Postal Units Being Eyed

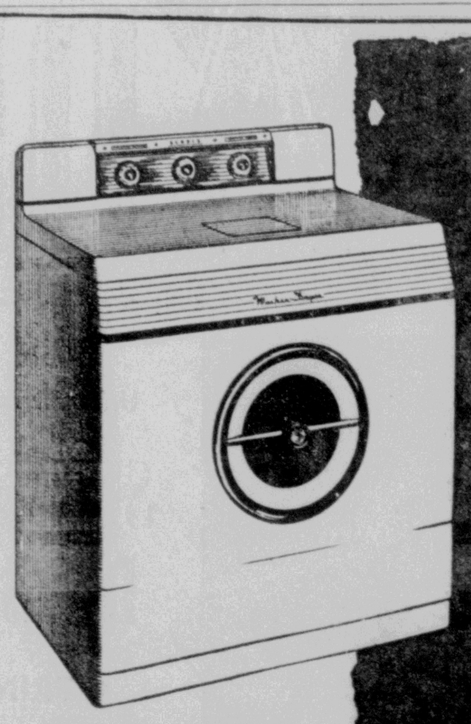

WASHINGTON (AP)—Post offices in Warren, Youngstown and Cleveland are being inspected today by staff investigators of a House Government Operations subcommittee.

An aide said they want to discover whether the post office department violated regulations in purchasing vehicles from Twin Coach Co., Kent, Ohio.

The vehicles were purchased on an experimental basis and include "standup trucks," in which the driver stands.

The committee, headed by Rep. Mollohan (D-W. Va.), plans to open hearings on post office procurement policies Monday.

Fayette County May Have Entries From Several Writers Here

Fayette County people who are lovers of poetry, and those among them who write poetry, will be much interested in six contests, for which awards are announced by various organizations and individuals; the awards will be given at the Ohio Poetry Day banquet to be held in the Southern Hotel in Columbus on October 13 this year.

The awards for original unpublished poems run from smaller amounts up to $50 for various types of poetry and winners will be announced at this banquet.

Those who are interested in obtaining details as to conditions for entering these contests may obtain full particulars and bulletins from Tessa Sweazy Webb, 251 West 8th Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, chairman of the contest committee of the Ohio Poetry Day Association which each year in October arranges this special day's program.

Frank Grubbs of this county was president of this association for three years. He usually attends each meeting and has been very active in the organization's work. He has received much acclaim over Ohio for many of his own poems, a number of which have appeared in the Record-Herald during past years.

Grubbs states that the organization is made up largely of literary clubs for the most part from the larger cities but that many smaller cities and villages also are represented.

The Ohio Department of Education cooperates with the Ohio Poetry Day Association.

It is reported that a number of Fayette County's writers of poetry are expected to submit samples of their work for consideration of the judges.

(Record-Herald photo)

Danny Schlichter, Washington C. H. High School vo-ag grad, today possesses a $100 war bond from the Rotary Club honoring him as the boy who best lives up to the Rotary motto, "Service Above Self."

Schlichter was honored by the Club at its regular meeting Tuesday.

Selection of Schlichter for the award was made only after thorough examination of the qualifications of a whole array of candidates from all the high schools in the city and the county. He was chosen as "the boy who best lives up to the motto in every aspect of his life," according to Rotary youth chairman Don Woods.

A graduate of WHS last week, Schlichter had a four-year high school grade average of over 3.5—nearly a "straight A" student. One of his teachers, recommending him for the award, said "If I had to trust my safety, my being, my life to one student of mine, Danny Schlichter would be that student."

Student council treasurer during his senior year, Schlichter was president of his class during his sophomore year and secretary of the high school chapter of the Future Farmers of America while a junior. He was a member of the National Honor Society and an FFA student advisor.

In FFA work, Schlichter had won the co-op award, the project book award twice, the beef producers award and the DeKalb award for the best all-round student farmer. He held the FFA state farmer degree

Athletically, Schlichter received honorable mention on the all-South Central Ohio League football team and played high school basketball and track. The 4-H clubs last year voted him the healthiest boy in Fayette County.

Danny was in the cast of the junior and senior class plays at the high school.

Outside of school, Danny has been secretary and vice-president of his Sunday School class at Madison Mills Methodist Church, and active in the church young people's group.

He has been secretary, treasurer, vice-president and president of 4-H groups in the county.

Schlichter was the owner of 1950's grand champion steer, the 1952 reserve champion, and for three years the winner of the grand champion Angus heifer award. He is a member of the Angus Association.

Now that he has finished school, Schlichter plans to go into farming here.

'Cycle Races Draw Big Crowd

Silver Rocket Club Sponsor Of Event

A crowd that virtually packed the grandstand screamed and shrieked with excitement as the motorcycles roared around and around the half-mile track at the Fairgrounds here Memorial Day in what was described as "one of the best races" ever put on by the Silver Rocket Motorcycle Club here.

Although officers and committees of the club have not completed checking the figures, they have come up with estimates of 2,500 to 3,000 thrill-seeking spectators and around $2,300 for the club treasury.

George Haynes, one of the king pins in the club, commented that Sunday's event was bigger and better in every way than those of the last couple of years.

They came from near and far, on motorcycles and in automobiles, for the races. Many of the motorcycles, incidentally, were the super-delux models that ran into a lot of money.

The Silver Rocket Club has made a practice of carrying out some civic or humanitarian project with the proceeds from the races it has sponsored for the last several years; this year, officers of the club said, would be no exception, although the project has not yet been selected. Much of the club's interest in this connection has centered on the Children's Home.

Textbook Study Here Completed

City School Board To Get Report Soon

A committee of 18 teachers today had completed a six-month study of textbooks to be used in 11 courses in Washington C. H. Junior and Senior High School and will make its recommendations to Supt. W. A. Smith in the near future.

These textbooks, if the committee recommendations are approved, will replace those that have been in use in schools here. They probably will be put in before school opens next fall. Most of the textbooks are for high school courses.

Just when the final decision will be made on the recommendations is conjectural, because after the committee reports are made to Supt. Smith, he will then take the matter up with the School Board, which has the final say.

The study, started early last December, was made by sub-committees assigned to the different subjects.

The climax to the study came this week, after the sub-committees had considered many textbooks published by many different companies and eliminated all but three for each course. That screening process finally accomplished, the sub-committees spent Monday and Tuesday interviewing representatives of the three remaining publishers of textbooks for each course. It was late Tuesday afternoon before the interviews were completed.

THE COMMITTEE— made up of 11 sub-committees—is to meet in the near future to compile the reports and recommendations that are to be made to Supt. Smith. Each sub-committee, it was explained, would make its own separate report on the study and its own recommendations.

Sub-committees that made the study, and the courses to which they were assigned, were:

Geography—Leo Whiteside, Miss Marian Christopher, Mrs. Mary Gillespie, Mrs. Dorothy Crone, Earl Miller and Mrs. Grace Iden.

History — Mrs. Iden, Donald Moore, and J. M. York.

World history — Harry Townsend, Clyde Cramer, Thomas G. Mansell and Moore.

American history — Creamer, Townsend, Mansell and York.

American government — Mansell, Creamer, Miss Helen Hutson and Herb Russell.

Sociology — Russell, Cramer and Mansell.

Economic geography — Russell, Cramer and Mrs. Iden.

General business — Miss Isabelle Reid, Edwin Nestor and Miss Jane Trent.

Business arithmetic — Mrs. Madonna Gordon, Nestor and Miss Reid.

General arithmetic (review)—Mrs. Faye Mayo, Fred Cluff, York and Mrs. Gordon.

Business English—Miss Trent, Miss Naomi Gettig and Miss Gladys Melson.

Supt. Smith asked the committee in a letter to get from the representatives of the publishers a price list showing the net price of the books and a statement of company policy concerning the exchange on books being replaced.

Water Skier, 32, Swept To Death Over High Falls

TWIN FALLS, Idaho (AP) — The swift-running Snake River swept a water skier over the brink of 212-foot Shoshone Falls Wednesday as outlookers taking the Memorial Day sun watched in horror from the shore.

Still missing today was the body of 32-year-old Melvin W. Hulbert of Boise, Idaho.

Witnesses said Hulbert lost his balance and fell into the water of a lagoon about 1,000 yards upstream from the falls, one of the highest cataracts in the west. He splashed around in the water, apparently unconcerned, while the current edged him ever closer to the lip of the falls.

"About 200 feet from the falls he seemed to realize he was in trouble," one witness said. The boat which had been towing him and another craft made desperate, dangerous last-minute passes in an attempt to rescue him almost at the brink.

Enrollment Set For Blue Cross

Three-day Campaign To Start Monday

The 11th annual Blue Cross Community Enrollment for Fayette County is slated for next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. It will be sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

A Blue Cross representative will be at the First Federal Savings and Loan Association from 9 A. M., to 4 P. M. to enroll eligible Fayette County residents.

Mrs. Marie Mace, president of the BPW, explained "the enrollment is of vital interest to each eligible Fayette Countian, for the plan provides a method of prepaying hospital care that few families could afford in time of emergency accident or sickness. Persons wishing to join Blue Cross should do so at this time, for there will be no other enrollment for a full year."

Blue Cross is nationwide. In central Ohio, over half a million persons are Blue Cross protected.

Blue Cross members are covered for 16 major hospital services, and the low cost of Blue Cross protection places it within the reach of every employed person.

There are two general classifications of eligibility for enrollment:

(1) Self - employed persons under 65 years of age, including farmers and those working where there are fewer than five employees, may enroll themselves and members of their families. All unmarried children from three months to 19 years of age are covered under the family contract.

(2) Any person employed in a group of five or more may enroll in a payroll deduction group.

Blue Cross carries the endorsement of Fayette County Memorial Hospital and the Fayette County Medical Society. Subscribers who are billed at home are covered under the $25.00 Deductible Contract and may pay their dues at the Washington Savings Bank.

4-H Club Activities

BUSY BEAVERS

Discussion of projects for the County Fair highlighted a meeting of the Busy Beavers 4-H Club, held Monday at the home of Miss Jo Reiff, the club's adviser.

The girls are at work cutting patterns for their projects, so that everything will be ready in time for the fair.

A total of nine members answered the roll call at the session.

Nancy Cooks, the group president, called the session to order and led in repeating the 4-H pledge.

Next meeting will be held at the swimming pool Monday, June 4.

JEFF MIXERS AND MAKERS

Members of the Jeff Mixers and Makers passed an important milestone in their history at their last meeting — they finished the tea towels on which they have been working for some time.

Cary Sue Bock gave a demonstration on some of the stages of tea towel making at the session.

A discussion of "Why You Should Have a Smallpox Vaccination," was led by the club's safety leader.

Refreshments were served by Rise Schlichter and Cary Sue Bock. Rise Schlichter and Saundra Griffith led recreation.

Postmaster Seeks Writer Of Letter Sent 'Care of God'

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Postmaster H. Wayne Parker still hasn't located "Mickey," who wrote a touching letter to "Mommy, care of God, Heaven," but stacks of mail and at least one $25 check are waiting.

Mickey's unstamped letter found its way to Parker's desk May 17. News reports of the letter touched off a flood of answering mail. A check came for "Mickey" from a banker in Elmore City, Okla., who said: "This little girl must not lose her faith."

Mickey's letter bore no return address or last name.

"Dear Mommy, I miss you very much since you went to live with God. I hope you're happy. I'm lonesome without you and Daddy since you have gone away. Please tell God to help me be good so I can come to heaven by you. Love, your baby girl, Mickey."

Good Deed Brings High Drama For Boy

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Stanley Geiser, 12, provided drama on a rooftop when he tried to do a good deed.

The youngster grabbed a live 220-volt wire while retrieving a friend's slipper off a second-story roof.

A neighbor, Robert Stephens, 26, heard the screams of Stanley's mates, knocked the boy loose from the wire.

Stanley, more scared than anything else, said the hot wire "sent shocks going through my arms and hands and when I tried to get away it hurt more."

Cleveland Museum Donates Land For 2 New Ohio Parks

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio has acquired two new state parks.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche accepted the presentation by Harold T. Clark, president emeritus of the Cleveland Museum of Natural History. One park includes 425 acres on Kelleys Island in Lake Erie. The other includes 600 acres in Geauga County north of Chardon.

Accepting the presentation, Lausche said the parks will be used for recreation.

A prepared statement issued in connection with the acceptance ceremony in the governor's Statehouse office said:

"Today, the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, through Mr. Harold T. Clark, its president emeritus, delivered to me a quit claim deed covering approximately 425 acres of recreation grounds on Kelleys Island.

"The conveyance of the land is a culmination of a program started in 1953 and announced in 1955. The program also included the development of Big Creek Park in Geauga County consisting of about 60 acres of land.

"The Kelleys Island tract has been given to the State of Ohio without cost and without any conditions attached to it except the tacit understanding that it will be used for public recreation.

"Excluding the 425-acre tract, the Cleveland Museum of Natural History will retain in the area approximately 50 acres of land upon which it hopes to hold summer schools for nature teachers.

"The Geauga tract is made up of several pieces of land owned by different individuals and is being given to the state without cost. The donors of the Geauga tract are Mr. S. Livingston Mather, Mr. and Mrs. G. Garritson Wade, Mr. and Mrs. David Ingalls and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hadden.

"It is located just north of Chardon on State Route 44, covered with excellent timber, and will lend itself in the finest manner of public use as a recreational ground. It will be devoted primarily as site where nature history will be studied."

Present at the presentation ceremony were A. W. Marion, director of natural resources, and V. M. Flickinger, head of the state division of parks.

Lausche expressed gratitude to Clark for his interest in directing acquisition of the land for the state.

Clark said the Lake Erie site was acquired from the old Kelley Island Lima & Transport Co. He said glacial markings on the island probably are the clearest to be found anywhere in the world.

Two University of North Carolina trackmen are 1956 Atlantic Coast Conference champions. Jim Beatty is mile ruler and Charlie Yarborough is broad jump titlist.

Limestone is the accumulation of skeletons of marine animals.

Discussion of projects for the County Fair highlighted a meeting of the Busy Beavers 4-H Club, held Monday at the home of Miss Jo Reiff, the club's adviser.

The girls are at work cutting patterns for their projects, so that everything will be ready in time for the fair.

A total of nine members answered the roll call at the session.

Nancy Cooks, the group president, called the session to order and led in repeating the 4-H pledge.

Next meeting will be held at the swimming pool Monday, June 4.

Postmaster Seeks Writer Of Letter Sent 'Care of God'

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Postmaster H. Wayne Parker still hasn't located "Mickey," who wrote a touching letter to "Mommy, care of God, Heaven," but stacks of mail and at least one $25 check are waiting.

Mickey's unstamped letter found its way to Parker's desk May 17. News reports of the letter touched off a flood of answering mail. A check came for "Mickey" from a banker in Elmore City, Okla., who said: "This little girl must not lose her faith."

Mickey's letter bore no return address or last name.

"Dear Mommy, I miss you very much since you went to live with God. I hope you're happy. I'm lonesome without you and Daddy since you have gone away. Please tell God to help me be good so I can come to heaven by you. Love, your baby girl, Mickey."

Good Deed Brings High Drama For Boy

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Stanley Geiser, 12, provided drama on a rooftop when he tried to do a good deed.

The youngster grabbed a live 220-volt wire while retrieving a friend's slipper off a second-story roof.

A neighbor, Robert Stephens, 26, heard the screams of Stanley's mates, knocked the boy loose from the wire.

Stanley, more scared than anything else, said the hot wire "sent shocks going through my arms and hands and when I tried to get away it hurt more."

Cleveland Museum Donates Land For 2 New Ohio Parks

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio has acquired two new state parks.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche accepted the presentation by Harold T. Clark, president emeritus of the Cleveland Museum of Natural History. One park includes 425 acres on Kelleys Island in Lake Erie. The other includes 600 acres in Geauga County north of Chardon.

Accepting the presentation, Lausche said the parks will be used for recreation.

A prepared statement issued in connection with the acceptance ceremony in the governor's Statehouse office said:

"Today, the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, through Mr. Harold T. Clark, its president emeritus, delivered to me a quit claim deed covering approximately 425 acres of recreation grounds on Kelleys Island.

"The conveyance of the land is a culmination of a program started in 1953 and announced in 1955. The program also included the development of Big Creek Park in Geauga County consisting of about 60 acres of land.

"The Kelleys Island tract has been given to the State of Ohio without cost and without any conditions attached to it except the tacit understanding that it will be used for public recreation.

"Excluding the 425-acre tract, the Cleveland Museum of Natural History will retain in the area approximately 50 acres of land upon which it hopes to hold summer schools for nature teachers.

"The Geauga tract is made up of several pieces of land owned by different individuals and is being given to the state without cost. The donors of the Geauga tract are Mr. S. Livingston Mather, Mr. and Mrs. G. Garritson Wade, Mr. and Mrs. David Ingalls and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hadden.

"It is located just north of Chardon on State Route 44, covered with excellent timber, and will lend itself in the finest manner of public use as a recreational ground. It will be devoted primarily as site where nature history will be studied."

Present at the presentation ceremony were A. W. Marion, director of natural resources, and V. M. Flickinger, head of the state division of parks.

Lausche expressed gratitude to Clark for his interest in directing acquisition of the land for the state.

Clark said the Lake Erie site was acquired from the old Kelley Island Lima & Transport Co. He said glacial markings on the island probably are the clearest to be found anywhere in the world.

Two University of North Carolina trackmen are 1956 Atlantic Coast Conference champions. Jim Beatty is mile ruler and Charlie Yarborough is broad jump titlist.

Lausche Ready If Lightning Strikes Him

Ohio Governor In Mood To Accept Honors At Convention

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Gov. Frank J. Lausche will keep a lightning rod aloft at the Democratic National Convention.

Although terming his chances for nomination nil, the former Cleveland mayor and judge indicates that he would be in position for the lightning to strike.

"I will allow my name to go before the convention," the five-term executive told newsmen.

Lausche adds that he would attend the presidential nominating session opening Aug. 13 in Chicago.

He has attended only two party conventions as a spectator, as the 1940 convention in Chicago and the 1948 gathering in Philadelphia.

This year delegates carrying 54 of Ohio's 58 convention votes are pledged to cast them for Lausche as the state's "favorite son" candidate for President.

The "favorite son" usually releases his delegates after an initial complimentary vote although the tie is not legally binding.

The organization faction of Ohio's split delegation to the 1952 national convention cast its first vote for Adlai E. Stevenson, that year's nominee. Former U.S. Sen. Robert J. Bulkley of Cleveland, the faction's "favorite son," released his delegates after an early Stevenson trend appeared.

The other half of the Ohio delegation remained with Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

Lausche's statement that his name would go before the 1956 convention confirmed reports circulating about the Statehouse for several days.

Politicians saw in it confirmation that Lausche was playing his usual role of keeping himself available without actively seeking office. They recalled Lausche's oft - repeated observation that "high public office does not come to him who avidly seeks it."

Southern Democratic leaders and other party stalwarts have described Lausche as presidential timber. Various newspapers and publications of national circulation have reviewed his chances.

The governor, himself, says he does not harbor ambitions for national office but would not spurn a presidential nomination.

Lausche scotched reports that his delegates would meet soon to decide who would offer his name at the convention.

"There will be no meeting prior to going to Chicago," he said.

But he admitted that at least six Ohioans are likely prospects for the honor of presenting his name. They are: Former U.S. Sen. James W. Huffman of Columbus, second choice of Lausche-pledged delegates; Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo, gubernatorial nominee and former federal price controller; James W. Shocknessy of Columbus, Ohio Turnpike Commission chairman and party wheelhorse; Thomas A. Burke, former U.S. Senator and Cleveland mayor; Anthony J. Celebrezze, Cleveland mayor and former state senator, and Frazier Reams of Toledo, former Independent congressman.

In addition to his "favorite son" role, Lausche is the Democratic nominee for U.S. Senator in the Nov. 6 general election.

Old Age Pensioners Slated For Better Setup On July 1

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Legislation designed to assure old age pensioners of the medical, hospital and nursing care they require becomes effective July 1.

The new law lifts the present $200 ceiling on payments for such care and leaves it up to the state to determine the sums needed.

Officials said the current limit has been woefully inadequate for many Ohioans receiving old age assistance. They said the change would permit transfer to hospitals and rest homes of many aged persons requiring such care.

Counties have been drawing on their poor relief funds to pay for care that exceeds the $200 limit when the money was available. But several counties have lacked money for supplemental payments, leaving some of their aged residents without proper care, officials reported.

Numerous counties have said they will halt supplemental payments after the new law goes into effect. That poses a very real problem for the state welfare department, says Director Henry J. Robison.

He has asked the state controlling board for the permission required under the new law to establish a "pool fund" out of which medical, hospital and nursing care would be paid by the state on the basis of need.

Robison estimates that the fund should approximate seven million dollars a year. He expects the federal government to reimburse the state for about a million dollars of such expenditures annually.

The director's request for a four million dollar medical payment fund for the last half of the year is under study by the board. Robinson suggests that the money could be advanced from the 66 million dollars appropriated to the Division of Aid for the Aged for the bookkeeping year starting July 1.

But he said that would not leave enough money for old age pensions and division operations during the entire fiscal year. Replacement of the money for pensions would be up to the Legislature meeting next January if the board approves.

Robison said appropriations of more than 70 millions for the current bookkeeping year are adequate for pensions and division operations. He estimated the smaller appropriation for the next fiscal year might fall about a million dollars short of pension and division operating costs without provision for the medical care fund.

Some 98,000 Ohioans now are receiving old age pensions. About one-third of those also require medical, hospital or nursing care. The pension maximum is $65 a month but payments average slightly below $56. The medical allowance is in addition to monthly benefits.

"The present $200 allowance for that does not begin to pay the bill," Robison said. "When that sum is inadequate, county welfare departments draw on poor relief funds for supplementation."

Robison said he recently received letters from more than half of the 88 county welfare departments in the state and from the County Commissioners' Assn.

"All of the letters state that the counties will assume no responsibility for supplementing old age assistance after July 1," Robison told the controlling board.

Lausche Ready If Lightning Strikes Him

Ohio Governor In Mood To Accept Honors At Convention

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Gov. Frank J. Lausche will keep a lightning rod aloft at the Democratic National Convention.

Although terming his chances for nomination nil, the former Cleveland mayor and judge indicates that he would be in position for the lightning to strike.

"I will allow my name to go before the convention," the five-term executive told newsmen.

Lausche adds that he would attend the presidential nominating session opening Aug. 13 in Chicago.

He has attended only two party conventions as a spectator, as the 1940 convention in Chicago and the 1948 gathering in Philadelphia.

This year delegates carrying 54 of Ohio's 58 convention votes are pledged to cast them for Lausche as the state's "favorite son" candidate for President.

The "favorite son" usually releases his delegates after an initial complimentary vote although the tie is not legally binding.

The organization faction of Ohio's split delegation to the 1952 national convention cast its first vote for Adlai E. Stevenson, that year's nominee. Former U.S. Sen. Robert J. Bulkley of Cleveland, the faction's "favorite son," released his delegates after an early Stevenson trend appeared.

Southern Democratic leaders and other party stalwarts have described Lausche as presidential timber. Various newspapers and publications of national circulation have reviewed his chances.

The governor, himself, says he does not harbor ambitions for national office but would not spurn a presidential nomination.

Lausche scotched reports that his delegates would meet soon to decide who would offer his name at the convention.

"There will be no meeting prior to going to Chicago," he said.

But he admitted that at least six Ohioans are likely prospects for the honor of presenting his name. They are: Former U.S. Sen. James W. Huffman of Columbus, second choice of Lausche-pledged delegates; Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo, gubernatorial nominee and former federal price controller; James W. Shocknessy of Columbus, Ohio Turnpike Commission chairman and party wheelhorse; Thomas A. Burke, former U.S. Senator and Cleveland mayor; Anthony J. Celebrezze, Cleveland mayor and former state senator, and Frazier Reams of Toledo, former Independent congressman.

In addition to his "favorite son" role, Lausche is the Democratic nominee for U.S. Senator in the Nov. 6 general election.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Legislation designed to assure old age pensioners of the medical, hospital and nursing care they require becomes effective July 1.

The new law lifts the present $200 ceiling on payments for such care and leaves it up to the state to determine the sums needed.

Officials said the current limit has been woefully inadequate for many Ohioans receiving old age assistance. They said the change would permit transfer to hospitals and rest homes of many aged persons requiring such care.

Counties have been drawing on their poor relief funds to pay for care that exceeds the $200 limit when the money was available. But several counties have lacked money for supplemental payments, leaving some of their aged residents without proper care, officials reported.

Numerous counties have said they will halt supplemental payments after the new law goes into effect. That poses a very real problem for the state welfare department, says Director Henry J. Robison.

He has asked the state controlling board for the permission required under the new law to establish a "pool fund" out of which medical, hospital and nursing care would be paid by the state on the basis of need.

Robison estimates that the fund should approximate seven million dollars a year. He expects the federal government to reimburse the state for about a million dollars of such expenditures annually.

The director's request for a four million dollar medical payment fund for the last half of the year is under study by the board. Robinson suggests that the money could be advanced from the 66 million dollars appropriated to the Division of Aid for the Aged for the bookkeeping year starting July 1.

But he said that would not leave enough money for old age pensions and division operations during the entire fiscal year. Replacement of the money for pensions would be up to the Legislature meeting next January if the board approves.

Robison said appropriations of more than 70 millions for the current bookkeeping year are adequate for pensions and division operations. He estimated the smaller appropriation for the next fiscal year might fall about a million dollars short of pension and division operating costs without provision for the medical care fund.

Some 98,000 Ohioans now are receiving old age pensions. About one-third of those also require medical, hospital or nursing care. The pension maximum is $65 a month but payments average slightly below $56. The medical allowance is in addition to monthly benefits.

"The present $200 allowance for that does not begin to pay the bill," Robison said. "When that sum is inadequate, county welfare departments draw on poor relief funds for supplementation."

Robison said he recently received letters from more than half of the 88 county welfare departments in the state and from the County Commissioners' Assn.

"All of the letters state that the counties will assume no responsibility for supplementing old age assistance after July 1," Robison told the controlling board.

COLUMBUS (AP)—The body of Columbus police Detective Jesse D. Parker, 34, of nearby Hilliards, was discovered yesterday in the Scioto River. Parker drowned last Sunday while fishing.

Ag Agency Moving To Put New Farm Bill Into Effect

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Agriculture moved today to put the new farm law into effect, but it may be days before farmers will know what benefits they can expect from it this year.

President Eisenhower signed the measure yesterday, saying that it had shortcomings but that its advantages outweighed its "harmful provisions."

Thus ended more than a year of maneuvering between his administration and the Democratic leadership of Congress, with some Republican backing, over new farm legislation.

The law carries provisions for a $1.2 billion-a-year soil bank program, but just how much of the money may be made available this crop year is a matter which will be determined by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Benson, who said he was glad Eisenhower approved the measure, said his department is "proceeding with judicious haste" to put the soil bank plan into effect this year. Under this program, farmers will be offered payments for taking land out of production of surplus crops.

THE NEW LAW is the second farm measure passed by Congress this year. The first one was vetoed by Eisenhower April 16 because it carried provisions which would have raised price supports of some crops and products above levels favored by the administration.

Benson said last night that this year will not provide "a fair test" of the soil bank because practically all crops have been planted. Eisenhower expressed regret that the soil bank had not been enacted earlier.

Nevertheless, soil bank money could be made available to a relatively large acreage if Benson offered liberal conditions. If he should limit participation this year to land intended for wheat, corn, peanuts, rice, tobacco and cotton but not yet planted, the participation would be limited and the total payments small.

But should he permit farmers to plow up a part of the land planted to these crops (as he has authority to do) the participation could be relatively large and the payments substantial.

Ohio's Liquor Permit Freeze Nearing End

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's freeze of hard liquor permits apparently ends at midnight tonight, Liquor Director William C. Bryant says.

His department's modified freeze, which was to have gone into effect last midnight, was put off indefinitely when 40 carryout permit holders appealed from the regulation in Franklin County Common Pleas Court.

The suit means that the freeze on beer, wine and carryout permits will remain—at least temporarily. Virtually unlimited issuance of such permits would have been allowed under the modified freeze regulation.

Under the modified freeze, the director said, some 3,000 new hard liquor permits might have been issued. Without it, he estimated, as many as 6,000 could be added to the 8,000 now in existence.

The Ohio Supreme Court recently knocked out the original 1949 freeze, saying that permit quotas failed to allow for population changes.

Tornadoes Increasing?

A twister whirls its way into a South Dakota town.

By LEONARD J. SNYDER
(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON— More tornadoes now are being reported in the United States each year than in the preceding year but weathermen say there is nothing to be alarmed about.

Dr. Morris Tepper, chief of the Weather bureau's severe-storms research unit, attributes the apparent sharp increase in tornadoes to better reporting. He says, "From our studies of the energies involved, we know of no atmospheric changes that would cause more tornadoes."

Tornadoes are a peculiarly American problem and the continental interior is the favorite spawning ground. Most occur in spring and early summer when masses of warm, moist air drift northward and collide with cold, dry fronts from the Pacific.

Man has been unable to ward off the spinning winds of death and destruction but, by gaining time, has managed to prepare himself for nature's most violent storm.

United States weathermen feel that the nation's new radar warning system may reduce a great deal of the destruction wrought by the twisters. The system is not yet completed.

By the spring of 1957, the Weather bureau hopes that all of its strategic east coast stations will be equipped with radar installations. These will serve the dual purpose of tracking hurricanes as well as looking out for tornadoes.

THE "BREEDING" place of America's tornadoes is the Rocky mountains. Observers in a network of cities east of the mountains scan radarscopes for the appearance of any distant squall line.

When one is spotted an alert is flashed and hundreds of volunteer ground corpsmen begin watching for possible formation of the dark pendant cloud that swings down to earth like an elephant's trunk, wrecking nearly everything in its narrow path. Even a few minutes' warning saves lives.

The first widespread network of radar stations was established in Texas in 1954. Sinie then the Weather bureau has extended the system to neighboring states in "Tornado Alley."

Meteorologists now know much about unstable atmospheric conditions, but no one knows the combination of factors that sends winds whirling at speeds up to 500 miles an hour. Instruments cannot survive the devastating wind and much about it remains a mystery.

Tornadoes can and do strike the same place more than once. The National Geographic society points out, for example, that the town of Codell, Kan., was hit three years in succession every May 20.

When it comes to oddities or "freak" weather conditions, the tornado seems to "take the cake." Tornadoes have been known to thrust pieces of wood hrough steel girders; denude chickens; drive straws into fence posts, and suck water from wells.

Meteorologists discount the claim, however, that one twister turned an iron kettle inside out.

Senate Nearing Road Bill Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate will reach the voting stage today on the mammoth highway construction bill which would inaugurate the biggest peacetime public works program in the nation's history.

Passage of the bill was expected by nightfall. Afterwards, the bill must go to a conference with the House to work out a compromise version.

As passed by the House, the bill calls for $51½ billion in federal-state road construction over a 13-year period.

The measure before the Senate would authorize $37 billion in federal-state outlays. It provides for a 13-year program to develop a 40,000-mile interstate system equipped to handle up-to-date traffic. Spending for the other three federal aid systems (primary, farm-to-market and urban) would be authorized only five years ahead.

THE HOUSE measure would provide about $14.8 billion in new highway user taxes over 16 years to help pay for the program. The Senate version would cut this to $14½ billion.

Both bills call for a penny-a-gallon boost in the present 2-cent federal gas tax, as well as increases in taxes on tires, trucks and the like. In most cases, the Senate and House tax provisions are identical, and thus will not be subject to change in conference.

Sharp controversy broke out in the Senate yesterday over how to apportion the federal money among the states. Other issues that produced differences involved the question of federal determination of wage rates on the interstate system, and a "pay as you build" amendment.

The 40,000-mile interstate system, contemplated as a modernized network connecting the nation's principal cities, is the main feature of the bill.

It would be allotted $25 billion in federal money in both House and Senate versions. Uncle Sam would put up nine dollars to every one furnished by the states.

Most of the debate yesterday was about how to divide this money among the states.

The House bill would distribute the money on the basis of the needs of the states as they reported them to the Bureau of Public Roads.

The Senate bill continues the formula in present law for the interstate system. It gives two-thirds weight to the population of a state, one sixth to its area, one sixth to its road mileage.

Opponents of the House plan said the described needs actually were "wild guesstimates" for which they contended each state used a different method of computation. Foes of the Senate bill arrangement said it would never complete the interstate system, and that some states would get too much under it while others would get too little.

Judge Agrees Confusion Reigns In Farm Program

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — U. S. Dist. Judge Charles G. Briggle sympathized with a Greenville, Ill., farmer who said he was confused by federal farm program paper work.

C. Orville Smith was accused of failing to pay federal wheat crop insurance premiums totaling $52.50 on 1953-54 policies.

Smith, who defended himself, said he did not intend to renew his insurance when he filled out acreage reports. He added that he had read of one farmer who was held for contempt for not signing a farm program form.

"What do you do?" he asked. "If you sign one form you get in trouble and if you don't sign you get into trouble."

"Confusion reigns supreme in the farm program," Judge Briggle commented, and found Smith innocent.

Presbyterians Widen Program

More Evangelism Due On Grass Roots Level

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The 168th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. today was urged to carry on a wider program of evangelism at the grass roots level.

The church's National Commission on Evangelism, reporting on the sixth day of the assembly's seven-day meeting, said "there has been a distinct change in the religious climate in the last 10 years."

"Church membership and church attendance have increased," the commission said. "There is a willingness to listen, if not necessarily to respond, to the message of the Christian church."

Along with this "heightened religious interest," continued the commission, there has come a return to evangelism.

"Evangelism is being restored to the heart of the church and, while in some quarters grave doubts are held as to its legitimacy and effectiveness, the tempo of our times and the dilemma of the church are forcing a reconsideration of the nature of evangelism and its place in the life of the church. There is still much apathy but the old hostility has almost disappeared."

THE ASSEMBLY passed two major milestones yesterday—approval of a merger with the United Presbyterian Church and the admitting of women to the ministry.

The merger plan was adopted by unanimous voice vote.

The United Presbyterian Church's General Assembly will vote on the union next month with the presbyteries of both churches also required to pass on it. The merged group would have approximately three million members, all but 275,000 from the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

Not involved is the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., a Southern branch, which rejected a three-way merger last year.

There was no floor vote on the question of admitting women to the Presbyterian ministry.

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—A Greek truck driver was killed and his passenger seriously wounded today by four men who halted the truck, then opened fire. The wounded man said their assailants talked in Turkish to each other.

Southern Baptists May Refuse Aid

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Southern Baptist Convention leaders debated today whether to recommend that the organization refuse to accept federal funds for hospital construction.

The Rev. Henry Lyons of Montgomery, Ala., backer of the movement, told the SBC Executive Committee acceptance of such aid would infringe the denomination's long-standing policy of complete separation of church and state.

The SBC has on its agenda a proposal that it construct a $2 million hospital in Miami. It now owns and operates hospitals in Jacksonville and New Orleans.

One estimate is that each juvenile delinquent child costs the taxpayers $300.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am in my early forties, unmarried and pretty much alone. It's not too bad being alone if you can stand it. But I can never relax and stay home for an evening, because as night falls the darkness and stillness of the house upset me, and I have to run to friends' homes for company.

I am always running somewhere and, as all my friends are married, I know that I am in their way. I hate them all; they have everything and I don't even have peace of mind.

I can't sleep nights, and get in such a state that I fear I may do something desperate eventually. I have always been afraid of death; but I have reached a point where I can understand why people commit suicide.

I am so confused even while writing you. I feel the darkness closing in; I must get out of here. Ever since I can remember, and still today, my mind is very confused about sex.

E. B.

DEAR E. B.: You write from a great city where there is no shortage of professional help for emotionally disturbed persons. You have a choice of several resources—such as mental hygiene clinics, family service agencies, and pastoral or church counselling on a psychiatric basis—all available to needy persons of little income.

Your immediate need is to establish a confidential discursive relationship with a trained counsellor, who is sympathetically familiar with the pattern of your distress. This is the first long step towards peace of mind.

It may relieve you to know that your problem isn't unique. You aren't lone in it. It is a fairly commonplace affliction in present day society. And, as you intuitively recognize, it is caused by being emotionally isolated from people. Such isolation is unnatural: it is "against nature." Thus it gives rise to instinctive fears and dreads that simply cannot be "reasoned" away.

The essential and durable remedy is to join in common cause with other people; to discover opportunities for being a faithful participant in group activities, where you are valud or useful as "one of us." You need to share habitually in the "we" - feeling about life.

As a lead in this direction, I suggest you write to the United Prayer Tower, 1571 Grand Avenue, St. Paul 5, Minnesota, and ask to be supplied with its monthly publication: The Manual of Prayer. Here is a non-profit, nondenominational Christian enterprise, founded in 1945, to promote widespread spiritual interchange.

Parking Meter Foe Handed Warrant

GRAHAM, N. C. (AP)—Cecil Moser, a Graham city councilman, evidently believes in practicing what he preaches.

A leading opponent of parking meters here, Moser was served with a warrant for failing to pay eight parking tickets.

TOKOMO NAKABAYSHI, 25, who survived history's first atomic attack, died of a heart attack at a New York hospital after she had undergone a third plastic operation. She was one of the Hiroshima maidens brought to America to undergo plastic surgery for radiation burns and scars resulting from the bombing of the Japanese city. The picture was made shortly before her death. (International)

Retail Traders Looking For Spring Tonic

Some Businessmen Say Turnover Now Rather Sluggish

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Retail trade has turned a little sluggish. And in many places merchants are looking for a spring tonic. Otherwise, the pleasant boost to profits they won earlier — largely by learning how to squeeze more out of a sales dollar — may be lost.

Some retail lines got a good lift out of the generous purchases for Mother's Day. Others hope to benefit the same way out of Father's Day next month (he won't get the bill until July). But without these special events the picture isn't as bright.

The U.S. Department of Commerce puts it primly this way: "Retail sales declined somewhat more than is usual in April." If you remember that auto dealers are retail merchants too, you can guess that the department may find somewhat the same condition in May, in spite of Mother's Day.

Retail trade failures in the first three months of the year rose to 1,618, an increase of 17 per cent over the previous year.

Department store sales, even counting in the big Mother's Day splurge, are only moderately ahead for the year so far. Chain stores and mail order firms, as a group, report sales this April down 2.8 per cent from last year.

In more detail the picture becomes mixed. Grocery chain sales in the first four months of the year are 11.6 per cent ahead of last year. Sales of women's wear chain stores in the first four months were 3.5 per cent lower than a year ago. Men's wear chain store sales were off by 3.4 per cent.

Bevis Scheduled

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Dr. Howard L. Bevis, president of Ohio State University, will deliver the main address at Wittenberg College's 111th annual commencement June 4.

"HURRICANE SAM," a 250-pound electronic instrument-stuffed dummy, is blasted into the air from the seat of a supersonic rocket sled atop a 1,500 feet high mesa in southern Utah. "Sam," used to test Air Force pilot ejection systems, was shot up from the seat at 612 miles an hour. The dummy cleared the top of the cliff, but was smashed when its parachute failed to open. (International)

Bender Evokes Some Laughs, Blames Lausche For Roads

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bender (R-Ohio) took the Senate floor this week to criticize his November election rival, Ohio Gov. Frank J. Lausche for what Bender called Ohio's "poor highways."

Bender's remarks came as he addressed the Senate in support of a multi-billion-dollar highway program.

Under Lausche, Ohio's five-term Democratic governor, Bender told the Senate, roads are "hazardous at best, downright dangerous at worst."

At one point, Sen. Douglas (D-Ill), smiling broadly, asked Bender whether Lausche is running for senator. Bender retorted:

"He is running for President of the United States, for vice president, for senator and I don't know that else he could run for."

The reply brought laughter on the Republican side.

Bender's remarks also took up a proposal for a north-south Ohio turnpike from Conneaut to Cincinnati. Chiding the Lausche administration for what he called delays in deciding on this project, Bender asserted:

"I believe that highway planning experts can determine whether or not the north-south highway can be built most efficiently as a turnpike or a freeway. It does not take an expert to determine that it ought to be built before the automobile becomes obsolete."

Bender declared the federal government wants to help Ohio build more and better roads. But, he said, a good deal of responsibility rests on Ohio, too. He told the Senate:

"If the state's chief executive refuses to accept the responsibility vested him by his office, the people should know exactly where the fault lies.

"In Ohio, blame for poor highways belongs squarely at the door of the governor."

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am in my early forties, unmarried and pretty much alone. It's not too bad being alone if you can stand it. But I can never relax and stay home for an evening, because as night falls the darkness and stillness of the house upset me, and I have to run to friends' homes for company.

I am always running somewhere and, as all my friends are married, I know that I am in their way. I hate them all; they have everything and I don't even have peace of mind.

I can't sleep nights, and get in such a state that I fear I may do something desperate eventually. I have always been afraid of death; but I have reached a point where I can understand why people commit suicide.

I am so confused even while writing you. I feel the darkness closing in; I must get out of here. Ever since I can remember, and still today, my mind is very confused about sex.

Green Proves Lucky Color For Flaherty

Chicago Irishman, 29, Wins Top Laurels In 500-Mile Speed Test

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—If any race driver still thought green was a bad luck color (an ancient superstition in the trade), they could get a sound argument today from George Francis Patrick (Pat) Flaherty, who won the 40th 500-mile race at Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Flaherty, a red-haired, 29-year-old racing veteran, roared unscathed Wednesday around a track littered with oil and debris from seven bad wrecks and innumerable spins and skids.

Two drivers, two pit crew members and two spectators were hurt as cars splattered against the concrete retaining walls and banged into one another.

Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., suffered a fractured collar bone and Jimmy Daywalt of Indianapolis suffered a burned arm when their cars crashed into the walls in separate accidents. They were reported in good condition at a hospital.

Flaherty, who runs a bar when he isn't racing, didn't put a scratch on the big green shamrock painted on the front of his helmet.

He started on the pole as the fastest qualifier in Speedway history and he beat veteran Sam Hanks of Burbank, Calif., to the finish line in the closest windup since Wilbur Shaw nipped Ralph Hepburn by 2.15 seconds in 1937.

Flaherty took the 41-year-old Hanks by 20.46 seconds, or about a third of the 2½-mile track.

The racing during competition was the fastest ever but due to an hour and 11 minutes of slowdowns for wrecks the final average was 128.49 miles an hour compared with Bill Vukovich's 1954 record of 130.84.

Flaherty missed Dick Rathmann's spinning car about two feet by splendid driving.

Flaherty, car owner John Zink of Tulsa, Okla., and master mechanic A. J. Watson of Glendale, Calif., won't know how much they won until the annual victory dinner tonight but Pat picked up $19,200 in lap prizes alone — $150 for each lap he led. The Speedway sets the purse according to the gate, which looked like more than 150,000 customers in spite of overnight rain.

The purse, including awards from accessory firms to cars using their products, was $270,000 last year and Sweikert won $76,138.

Don Freeland of Redondo Beach, Calif., finished third unofficially, followed by Johnnie Parsons of Van Nuys, Calif., the 1950 winner; Dick Rathmann of Trenton, N.J., who pulled out of the spin that menaced Flaherty and then crashed on the south straightaway after crossing the finish line; Sweikert; Rodger Ward, Los Angeles; Bob Veith of Oakland, Calif., highest rookie finisher; Jimmy Reece, Oklahoma City; and Cliff Griffith, Indianapolis.

Fans Turning Out Better For Baseball

NEW YORK (AP)—Major league baseball, enjoying its biggest day of the season, played to 240,354 fans yesterday for an increase of nearly 50,000 over Memorial Day a year ago.

The attendance for the eight doubleheaders on May 30, 1955 was 194,448. Yesterday a total of 122,025 saw the four American League doubleheaders and 118,329 were on hand for the four National League twinbills.

Philadelphia drew the biggest crowd—a standing room only turnout of 35,492—for its doubleheader with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Binghamton, N. Y., is a member of the New York Yankee baseball system. Yankees Whitey Ford, Bob Grim, Bill Skowron, Tom Morgan, Rip Coleman and Jerry Coleman played there.

Golf's 19th Hole

Better weather is bringing better scores for the golfers at the Country Club here now.

Ronnie Cornwell, many times club champion, has started hitting his stride; he turned in a sub-par round of 35.

Charles Buxton, Dr. Robert Hagerty and John Ellcessor each came through with 37s, just one over par figures; Chuck Dunton and Jay Crabtree carded 38s; George Fitzgerald and Wayne Shobe 39s and Bud Schlue 41.

Among the golfers out over the holiday for the first time this season were Dr. Phillip Binzel, Jr., and Mrs. Mary Gillespie.

Howard Miller, out for only the second time this year, shot a neat 39.

Interest in golf is spreading here, too. New golfing members of the club this week are Barth Mahoney, Jr., Arthur Vetter, Dr. Robert Harris and Richard Arnott.

Bud Mustine is taking up the sport again after a lay-off of several years.

THIS AND THAT from the notebook of the club pro, Tony Capuana:

Mrs. Ralph Bray had been saying all spring that she needs plenty of sun to get a good score. When she got the sun, she got her best-ever score of 59. Her husband turned up at the club for the first time this season, but not for golf—he took his dog for a walk.

Ralph Cook is the tallest golfer at the club now.

Bob Frizell of Zanesville had a 42 for his best score.

Elmer Reed golfed at Middletown during Memorial Day.

Andre Metais is taking up golf—with lessons from the pro.

The electric age has reached golf; using an electric golf cart, the pro played nine holes in 30 minutes in even par 36. It was the fastest nine holes he ever played.

A. E. (Hap) Weatherly used Mrs. Weatherly for his caddy and scorekeeper.

Bill Barrett is sporting a new pair of size 13 golf shoes.

THE FIRST two-man best-ball handicap tournament sponsored by the Columbus District Golf Association is scheduled for next Sunday at the Groveport course. The pro here has entry blanks.

Mrs. Charles Griffith chalked up a 72 for her first-ever score; she is now taking up golf.

Glenn Roseboom, after spending most of his time fishing, is now back at golf—his score showed it.

Robert Miller had H. A. Swigert and A. E. Bondie, both of Detroit, as his guests.

The next Country Club dance is Saturday night. It is to start at 10 o'clock.

Some tips on how to avoid topping, provided grip and stance are correct:

(1) Jerking head up is usually main cause;

(2) Swaying to either left or right foot too much;

(3) Raising the arc of the swing usually as the result of standing too far from the ball;

(4) Make certain the right knee does not "lock" at the top of the back swing;

(5) Don't drop left shoulder or keep weight on left foot on back swing;

(6) With an iron shot, the club head strikes the ball on the down stroke of the arc, putting the lowest part of the arc ahead of the ball and on a wood shot in the fairway, the club head strikes the ball at the lowest part of the arc.

Prophets Choose Jeffersonville

Full SWO Card Set For Coming Sunday

The way things were shaping up Thursday morning, it looked as if Jeffersonville was set to keep its ever-tightening hold on first place in the South Western Ohio League after this Sunday's full card of games.

Jeff, now leading the league with a 3-0 record, was scheduled to tangle with second-place Wilmington in the Clinton County city, and the bleacher prophets were saying that Jeff was a sure bet to win.

So far this season, Jeff has been the only team not to lose a game. Jeff won two of its games with ease and had trouble with only one team—the Chillicothe reformatory squad.

Good Hope's nine, tied for second with Wilmington and Hillsboro, was picked to win in its contest at Milledgeville. Milledgeville has won one game so far this season and dropped two while Good Hope's record is just the reverse.

The Chillicothe Businessmen's nine, huddled in the middle of the standings with a 1-1 record was being picked to hand Blanchester its third straight setback. The Blanchester nine has yet to give tough competition to its opposition.

'Way down at the bottom of the league, the Chillicothe Reformatory nine, which is being touted as the hard-luck team of the early days of the season, was being chosen to knock off Bainbridge. Bainbridge has won one game and lost two, while the reformatory squad hasn't won a game in two starts, but the forecasters were saying that anyone who could give Jeff a hard time was a team to watch.

A victory for the Reformatory team, coupled with other predicted results, would shoot the squad from the cellar slot up into sixth place, right behind the Businessmen's team.

Hillsboro, the third team in the three-way tie for second, gets the bye this weekend.

Snead Is Favorite In Texas Open

DALLAS (AP)—Texas' biggest golf tournament both in money and quality, the $70,000 Texas International Open, started today with Sam Snead in the familiar role of favorite but with a score of others strongly backed.

It's the second half of Dallas' $100,000 golf show. Don January, the Abilene, Tex., freshman to pro ranks, won the first one, the $30,000 Dallas Centennial Open, last weekend.

January is in this tournament too but isn't among the favorites.

John B. Kelly, father of Princess Grace of Monaco, is president of the Atlantic City Racing Assn.

Nashua Poses Question As Defeat Comes

NEW YORK (AP) — Nashua, the world's richest horse, posed a question of his right to rank with the turf's great after finishing out of the money for the second time in his brilliant racing career.

Can the son of Nasrullah, who sold for $1,251,200 last winter and has won more money than any other horse in history, carry as much as 130 pounds and still win?

To achieve greatness, many horsemen say a horse must be able to win with even more than 130 in the saddle. On that basis Nashua still has to prove himself.

The strapping 4-year-old picked up 130 (the most he has ever carried) in the Metropolitan Mile at Belmont Park yesterday and wound up fourth as Midafternoon, who never had won a stakes race, ripped off the distance in 1:35 under 111 pounds, and paid $20.60. The time equalled the stake record established in 1930 by Jack High.

True, Nashua was beaten only less than a length for the $37,700 first money as Midafternoon finished a head in front of Switch On with Find a half-length back.

The fourth place money of $2,500 boosted Nashua's earnings to $1,102,865.

The defeat of Nashua was the highspot of the holiday at 11 thoroughbred tracks, where a total of 342,951 fans wagered $20,049,774.

Pastrano Topples Spieser Again

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Willie Pastrano's finally got Chuck Spieser out of his hair, but the swift New Orleans heavyweight's future plans have little pattern.

Pastrano, borrowing a page from the baseball manual, hit to all fields last night. He displayed a newly acquired style of infighting in winning a nationally televised 10-round split decision over the former Olympic team member from Detroit.

The meeting was the third between the two and the record now shows two triumphs for Pastrano and one draw.

Redleg Spurt Puts Ohioans In 2nd Place

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs are proof that you can go from plowboy to President mighty quickly in the National League this year.

When all games had been played Monday night the Reds were only a half game out of fifth place after losing three straight. By the same time last night a winning spurt of three games had boosted them into second place, but a game out of first.

Of course, their hold on second place is quite precarious but at least the Rhinelanders have squatters' rights on that position.

A double victory over the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday, 6-3 and 6-5, pushed them past both Pittsburgh and the Cards although the margin over St. Louis is only .004 in percentage.

Ray Jablonski's three-run homer in the eighth locked up the first game. In the second, the Reds squandered most of a 6-0 lead and then got some help from the weather as a downpour of rain ended action in the eighth. The score reverted back to its seven-inning 6-5 status although Cincinnati had tallied a run in its half of the eighth.

Johnny Klippstein went all the way to win the opener. Paul LaPalme got credit for the second although Hershel Freeman and Joe Black followed him to the mound after the Cardinals started whittling away at the Cincinnati lead.

The double victory assured Cincinnati of one of its most successful road trips in years. The Rhinelanders will wind up visits to every other city in the league tonight and they already have won 8 of the 13 games played.

Heavyweight Harold Carter of Linden, N. J., won 26 of 27 bouts as an amateur, losing only to Floyd Patterson in the Eastern Golden Gloves finals.

Think of this next time you're in heavy traffic—
No other transmission is so smooth as Dynaflow*

You know how it is.
Anyone who drives a car these days must sometimes drive in crawling, slow-moving traffic where it's stop-and-go or spurt-and-slow.

And if you're used to a car that handles such traffic with a continuous series of upshifts and downshifts—even automatically—then maybe you think that's the best you can have.

But it isn't. You can have Dynaflow smoothness in a new Buick—and you won't believe the difference until you try stop-and-go traffic.

For here you have absolute smoothness when you accelerate.

Here you have absolute smoothness when you decelerate.

Here you have absolute smoothness under every road condition and traffic pace—with no lags or bumps to mark upshifts and downshifts—because no gears ever shift in Dynaflow.

It's the only transmission on the American scene today where flowing oil does the work of gears every step of the way—and where smoothness is constant, absolute and infinite.

So maybe you ought to sample a new Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow—and try the new thrills that go with this smoothness—

The flash-fast new getaway response—and new stepped-up gas mileage—when you barely press the pedal.

The instant new full-power acceleration when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch for a needed safety-surge—

The walloping new might of the big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that puts the ginger to it all—

And the new ride, the new handling ease, the new interiors, the new bold look of racy sweep-ahead styling.

Drop in on us this week—today if you can—and see for yourself what straightforward truth we tell you here—and what great-buy prices are keeping Buick more firmly than ever in the top 3 of America's best sellers.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Green Proves Lucky Color For Flaherty

Chicago Irishman, 29, Wins Top Laurels In 500-Mile Speed Test

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—If any race driver still thought green was a bad luck color (an ancient superstition in the trade), they could get a sound argument today from George Francis Patrick (Pat) Flaherty, who won the 40th 500-mile race at Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Flaherty, a red-haired, 29-year-old racing veteran, roared unscathed Wednesday around a track littered with oil and debris from seven bad wrecks and innumerable spins and skids.

Two drivers, two pit crew members and two spectators were hurt as cars splattered against the concrete retaining walls and barged into one another.

Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., suffered a fractured collar bone and Jimmy Daywalt of Indianapolis suffered a burned arm when their cars crashed into the walls in separate accidents. They were reported in good condition at a hospital.

Flaherty, who runs a bar when he isn't racing, didn't put a scratch on the big green shamrock painted on the front of his helmet.

He started on the pole as the fastest qualifier in Speedway history and he beat veteran Sam Hanks of Burbank, Calif., to the finish line in the closest windup since Wilbur Shaw nipped Ralph Hepburn by 2.15 seconds in 1937.

Flaherty took the 41-year-old Hanks by 20.46 seconds, or about a third of the 2½-mile track.

The racing during competition was the fastest ever but due to an hour and 11 minutes of slowdowns for wrecks the final average was 128.49 miles an hour compared with Bill Vukovich's 1954 record of 130.84.

Flaherty missed Dick Rathmann's spinning car about two feet by splendid driving.

Flaherty, car owner John Zink of Tulsa, Okla., and master mechanic A. J. Watson of Glendale, Calif., won't know how much they won until the annual victory dinner tonight but Pat picked up $19,200 in lap prizes alone — $150 for each lap he led. The Speedway sets the purse according to the gate, which looked like more than 100,000 customers in spite of overnight rain.

The purse, including awards from accessory firms to cars using their products, was $270,000 last year and Sweikert won $76,138.

Don Freeland of Redondo Beach, Calif., finished third unofficially, followed by Johnnie Parsons of Van Nuys, Calif., the 1950 winner; Dick Rathmann of Trenton, N.J., who pulled out of the spin that menaced Flaherty and then crashed on the south straightaway after crossing the finish line; Sweikert; Rodger Ward, Los Angeles; Bob Veith of Oakland, Calif., highest rookie finisher; Jimmy Reece, Oklahoma City; and Cliff Griffith, Indianapolis.

Prophets Choose Jeffersonville

Full SWO Card Set For Coming Sunday

The way things were shaping up Thursday morning, it looked as if Jeffersonville was set to keep its ever-tightening hold on first place in the South Western Ohio League after this Sunday's full card of games.

Jeff, now leading the league with a 3-0 record, was scheduled to tangle with second-place Wilmington in the Clinton County city, and the bleacher prophets were saying that Jeff was a sure bet to win.

So far this season, Jeff has been the only team not to lose a game. Jeff won two of its games with ease and had trouble with only one team—the Chillicothe reformatory squad.

Good Hope's nine, tied for second with Wilmington and Hillsboro, was picked to win in its contest at Milledgeville. Milledgeville has won one game so far this season and dropped two, while Good Hope's record is just the reverse.

The Chillicothe Businessmen's nine, huddled in the middle of the standings with a 1-1 record was being picked to hand Blanchester its third straight setback. The Blanchester nine has yet to give tough competition to its opposition.

'Way down at the bottom of the league, the Chillicothe Reformatory nine, which is being touted as the hard-luck team of the early days of the season, was being chosen to knock off Bainbridge. Bainbridge has won one game and lost two, while the reformatory squad hasn't won a game in two starts, but the forecasters were saying that anyone who could give Jeff a hard time was a team to watch.

A victory for the Reformatory team, coupled with other predicted results, would shoot the squad from the cellar slot up into sixth place, right behind the Businessmen's team.

Hillsboro, the third team in the three-way tie for second, gets the bye this weekend.

Snead Is Favorite In Texas Open

DALLAS (AP)—Texas' biggest golf tournament both in money and quality, the $70,000 Texas International Open, started today with Sam Snead in the familiar role of favorite but with a score of others strongly backed.

It's the second half of Dallas' $100,000 golf show. Don January, the Abilene, Tex., freshman to pro ranks, won the first one, the $30,000 Dallas Centennial Open, last weekend.

January is in this tournament too but isn't among the favorites.

John B. Kelly, father of Princess Grace of Monaco, is president of the Atlantic City Racing Assn.

OHIO OUTDOORS
From THE OHIO DIVISION OF WILDLIFE

The annual convention of the Water Safety Congress was held in Somerset, Ky., during which time the controversial subject of boating safety legislation was thoroughly discussed.

Attending the convention from Ohio were: Hayden W. Olds, chief of the Division of Wildlife, and a former president of the Congress; Gene Copeland, assistant supervisor of the law enforcement section and Ben Anderson, Earl Kinneer, and Eldon Sturgeon, all wildlife district law enforcement supervisors.

One of the panel discussions, followed by a question and answer period, dealth with the subject: "Has the Tremendous Increase in the Use of Small Craft Brought a Need for New Legislation Regarding Their Operation?"

Appearing on the panel were: Guy W. Hughes, executive director of the Outboard Boating Club of America; Captain Eugene A. Coffin, Jr., USCG executive secretary of the Merchant Marine Council; Fred B. Lifton, director, Michigan Waterways Commission and Olds.

Othe activities included an outline of water safety education as presented at Kntucky's Junior Conservation camps; a dry land boat safety demonstration by Marion Lepich of the American Red Cross; and the annual business session.

Outdoor demonstrations highlighted activities on the last day. Robert Earle and Louis Gillespie of the Red Cross, demonstrated safety hints for skin and scuba divers and small craft rescue operations. Charles Chappell of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers demonstrated effectiveness of fire extinguishers.

Nashua Poses Question As Defeat Comes

NEW YORK (AP) — Nashua, the world's richest horse, posed a question of his right to rank with the turf's great after finishing out of the money for the second time in his brilliant racing career.

Can the son of Nasrullah, who sold for $1,251,200 last winter and has won more money than any other horse in history, carry as much as 130 pounds and still win?

To achieve greatness, many horsemen say a horse must be able to win with even more than 130 in the saddle. On that basis Nashua still has to prove himself.

The strapping 4-year-old picked up 130 (the most he has ever carried) in the Metropolitan Mile at Belmont Park yesterday and wound up fourth as Midafternoon, who never had won a stakes race, ripped off the distance in 1:35 under 111 pounds, and paid $20.60. The time equalled the stake record established in 1930 by Jack High.

True, Nashua was beaten only less than a length for the $37,700 first money as Midafternoon finished a head in front of Switch On with Find a half-length back.

The fourth place money of $2,500 boosted Nashua's earnings to $1,102,865.

The defeat of Nashua was the highspot of the holiday at 11 thoroughbred tracks, where a total of 342,951 fans wagered $20,049,774.

Pastrano Topples Spieser Again

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Willie Pastrano's finally got Chuck Spieser out of his hair, but the swift New Orleans heavyweight's future plans have little pattern.

Pastrano, borrowing a page from the baseball manual, hit to all fields last night. He displayed a newly acquired style of infighting in winning a nationally televised 10-round split decision over the former Olympic team member from Detroit.

The meeting was the third between the two and the record now shows two triumphs for Pastrano and one draw.

Redleg Spurt Puts Ohioans In 2nd Place

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs are proof that you can go from plowboy to President mighty quickly in the National League this year.

When all games had been played Monday night the Reds were only a half game out of fifth place after losing three straight. By the same time last night a winning spurt of three games had boosted them into second place, but a game out of first.

Of course, their hold on second place is quite precarious but at least the Rhinelanders have squatters' rights on that position.

A double victory over the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday, 6-3 and 6-5, pushed them past both Pittsburgh and the Cards although the margin over St. Louis is only .004 in percentage.

Ray Jablonski's three-run homer in the eighth locked up the first game. In the second, the Reds squandered most of a 6-0 lead and then got some help from the weather as a downpour of rain ended action in the eighth. The score reverted back to its seven-inning 6-5 status although Cincinnati had tallied a run in its half of the eighth.

Johnny Klippstein went all the way to win the opener. Paul LaPalme got credit for the second although Hershel Freeman and Joe Black followed him to the mound after the Cardinals started whittling away at the Cincinnati lead.

The double victory assured Cincinnati of one of its most successful road trips in years. The Rhinelanders will wind up visits to every other city in the league tonight and they already have won 8 of the 13 games played.

Heavyweight Harold Carter of Linden, N. J., won 26 of 27 bouts as an amateur, losing only to Floyd Patterson in the Eastern Golden Gloves finals.

Think of this
next time you're in heavy traffic—
No other transmission is so smooth as Dynaflow*

You know how it is.

Anyone who drives a car these days must sometimes drive in crawling, slow-moving traffic where it's stop-and-go or spurt-and-slow.

And if you're used to a car that handles such traffic with a continuous series of upshifts and downshifts — even automatically — then maybe you think that's the best you can have.

But it isn't. You can have Dynaflow smoothness in a new Buick — and you won't believe the difference until you try stop-and-go traffic.

For here you have absolute smoothness when you accelerate.

Here you have absolute smoothness when you decelerate.

Here you have absolute smoothness under every road condition and traffic pace — with no lags or bumps to mark upshifts and downshifts — because no gears ever shift in Dynaflow.

It's the only transmission on the American scene today where flowing oil does the work of gears every step of the way — and where smoothness is constant, absolute and infinite.

So maybe you ought to sample a new Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow — and try the new thrills that go with this smoothness —

The flash-fast new getaway response — and new stepped-up gas mileage — when you barely press the pedal.

The instant new full-power acceleration when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch for a needed safety-surge —

The walloping new might of the big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that puts the ginger to it all —

And the new ride, the new handling ease, the new interiors, the new bold look of racy sweep-ahead styling.

Drop in on us this week—today if you can—and see for yourself what straightforward truth we tell you here—and what great-buy prices are keeping Buick more firmly than ever in the top 3 of America's best sellers.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Ohio To Get $117,700,000 For Highways

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio stands to receive $117,700,000, maybe more, in federal funds in the next two years for construction of new superhighways.

The amount may be as much as 161 million dollars, depending on a compromise which Senate and House conferees must reach before the multi-million-dollar highway bill can be sent to the White House.

The Senate bill, passed Tuesday night, calls for the smaller amount. Ohio would get $1,059,800,000 over the 13-year period for which the program is planned. The House bill calls for $1,452,100,000 for the Buckeye state.

Whether the program will effect the Ohio Turnpike is not clear.

An official of the Bureau of Public Roads said the federal government would not be disposed to "ruin" the turnpike's business by laying a free superhighway next to it.

Ultimately, the question will be up to the Ohio Highway Department, which has before it a proposal to build a second turnpike from Conneaut to Cincinnati.

Sen. George Bender (R-Ohio) brought up the proposed turnpike in debating on the highway bill.

"I believe that highway plans whether or not the north-south highway can be built most effectively as a turnpike project or a freeway," Bender said.

Lausche Sees Peace If Free Men Rule

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche says "peace will be attained in the world only when tyrants are brought to their knees and free men rule."

The governor spoke at a Memorial Day service in the little 137-year-old Hickory Flat cemetery, five miles north of here. Several hundred persons attended the ceremony at which a veterans' memorial was dedicated.

Declaring that "patriotism is not old-fashioned," the governor said:

"We must realize the full meaning of the strength and liberties under which we live. . . . Let us visualize and imagine what the dead would say to us if we let their sacrifices be in vain."

Bobby Thomson Paying Off For Braves-Giants Swap

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's been a long time coming, but Bobby Thomson finally looks ready to deliver the payoff for the Milwaukee Braves in that ill-fated deal they arranged to get him from the New York Giants in 1954.

The Swattin' Scot was the man the Braves figured they needed for the pennant, and so they packaged pitchers Johnny Antonelli and Don Liddle, catcher Ebba St.Clair, infielder Billy Klaus and about $50,000 and sent them to the Polo Grounds for Bobby and catcher Sam Calderone.

You know what happened. Thomson broke an ankle in spring training, hit only two home runs and the Braves finished third. The Giants won the flag — with Antonelli winning 21 games.

Last season, Thomson hit 12 homers while playing on a part-time basis and the Braves finished second to Brooklyn.

Now Thomson has eight home runs so far this season and the Milwaukees lead the National League by a game. Bobby slammed four homers, had six hits in nine trips and drove in seven runs as the Braves split a double-header with the Chicago Cubs Wednesday.

All told, the two clubs combined for 15 home runs among the record 50 which were blasted in the 16-game Memorial Day card.

For all the records and Thomson's great day, however, most of the excitement was set off by Mickey Mantle's "nearmiss." The Oklahoma strong boy, jolting his 19th and 20th homers of the season as the New York Yankees swept Washington, smacked one against the facade on the third tier in right field that missed by 18 inches of being the first fair ball ever hit out of mammoth Yankee Stadium.

Thomson hit two homers in each game — his first "double" since Aug. 22, 1953. A pair of two-run homers by Hobie Landrith and Dee Fondy in the sixth got the job done in the opener for the Cubs, however, 10-9. Thomson's three-run blast triggered a four-run sixth that helped Milwaukee to an 11-9 edge in the nightcap.

Cub pitcher Russ Meyer and Pilly Bruton were banished from the opener after exchanging blows when Meyer conked Bruton on his protective helmet with a pitch.

The flareup followed consecutive first-inning homers by Ed Mathews, Hank Aaron and Thomson—tying a major league mark.

Cincinnati replaced St. Louis as the NL runner-up, sweeping the Cardinals 6-3 and 6-5. Ray Jablonski's three-run homer in the eighth won the opener. Doubles by Frank Robinson and Ted Kluszewski fired a six-run third that won the nightcap.

Pittsburgh held fourth place, 1½ games back in a split with the New York Giants. Dale Long's triple won the opener in 10 innigs 5-4 for the Pirates. A two-run double by Al Dark broke up the nightcap for the Giants in 15 innings, 5-3.

Brooklyn and Philadelphia also split, the Dodgers scoring six in the sixth off Robin Roberts to win 6-5 in the opener. Then the Phils, with seven unearned runs, ran off with a 12-3 decision.

The Yankees beat the Senators 4-3 and 12-5. Mantle's big belt with two on gave them the lead in the opener. Mantle's 20th homer cracked a 3-all tie in the nightcap and a five-run sixth iced it.

Billy Pierce needed help, but won No. 100 in the majors and third straight over Cleveland as Chicago clipped the Indians twice 6-3 and 9-8.

Baltimore twice edged Boston in the ninth, 2-1 and 5-4. Bob Hale's single broke up the second game. Bob Nieman's single ended the opener.

Virgil Trucks, despite a swollen ankle that benched him for 10 days, three-hit Kansas City as Detroit beat the A's 5-1 in the second half of a morning-afternoon pair on a two-run homer by Al Kaline and a three-run shot by Frank House.The Tigers took the opener 11-3.

Double Loss Drops Indians To 3rd Place

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians, dropped to third place by a double loss to the Chicago White Sox yesterday, leave tonight on an eastern tour.

They open in Washington tomorrow night and are scheduled to play 16 games in 14 days before they return home.

Now trailing the New York Yankees by six games, and percentage points behind the White Sox, the Indians need a lot of victories on this trip.

They lost two loosely played games yesterday by scores of 6-3 and 9-8. The Indians came up with a six run rally, featuring three home runs, in the ninth inning of the nightcap.

Cleveland came out of a hitting slump, getting 10 hits in the first game and 11 in the second. But Chicago batters rapped five Cleveland pitchers for seven hits in the first game, and got 13 hits off four Indian pitchers in the nightcap.

Five Chicago players were hit by pitched balls in the opener, one short of a record.

In the nightcap, Cleveland right fielder Stu Locklin lost Larry Doby's easy fly in the sun and it dropped for a double, scoring two runs. The White Sox got another run in a wild pitch by Bud Daley.

Art Houtteman lost his first start of the season in the opener, leaving in the sixth after Sherm Lollar hit a two-run homer. Billy Pierce got the victory, his third of the season over the Indians, although he needed help from Dixie Howell and Jim Wilson. Cleveland's Vic Wertz hit two homers and a double in the opener.

The second game victory went to Gerry Staley, former National Leaguer acquired by the White Sox from the New York Yankees last Monday. He left in the eighth, leading 9-2.

Underdogs Collect Wins At Lebanon

LEBANON (AP)—A couple of underdogs grabbed victories last night in feature races at Lebanon Raceway's harness race meeting. They set new time marks for themselves in winning.

Newsman, competing in the class 23 pace, lowered his mark to 2:07.1 as he won that event. It was his second victory in three starts here. Newsman, owned by Mid Center Stables of Middletown, was driven by Eddie Boyer of Springfield.

Bobby Thomson Paying Off For Braves-Giants Swap

Joint Chiefs May Get Red Invite Too

Some US. Officials See Soviet Bid Slated For Next Maneuver

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some U. S. officials believe Moscow will follow up its successful bid to Gen. Nathan F. Twining with invitations to other American military leaders to visit Russia.

Members of the Soviet high command may be asked to come to the United States in return.

Secretary of the Air Force Donald A. Quarles announced yesterday that "with the authorization of the President" Twining had accepted an invitation to a Soviet Aviation Day celebration June 24. Twining, Air Force chief of staff, will be accompanied by several subordinate officers.

Quarles said the decision to accept had been approved also by Secretary of Defense Wilson and Secretary of State Dulles, who is presently on a 10-day vacation. The Russian Embassy was advised of the decision.

Thus ended half a dozen days of speculation.

THE DECISION for Twining to accept was speeded by a weekend report from Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen in Moscow making clear the bid was a firm one. This indicated that the Soviet government was not interested at the moment in inviting other members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff for a tour of Russian military establishments.

Comments from the White House and Defense Department showed they would welcome a broadened invitation, but when it became evident that this would not be promptly forthcoming the decision was made for Twining to accept.

As a matter of policy, it appears that Soviet moves for increasing military contacts with the United States have confronted Eisenhower and his chief advisers with a choice of difficult and risky alternatives.

The central problem is this:

1. How can the United States enter into friendlier military relations with Russia without causing its allies and the free world generally to lower its guard and relax vigilance against Soviet communism?

2. On the other hand, can the United States afford to cold-shoulder Soviet moves for more normal relations in the military field without appearing to other countries to have a kind of Iron Curtain of its own?

Eisenhower himself is described as convinced that more and closer American-Russian contact are in themselves desirable in the interest of peace.

Teen-agers Terrorize

Negro teen - agers into custody when the Canadiana docked here.

Police said no charges were placed against them immediately.

It was not known what set off the disturbances at the beach. An estimated 15,000 to 20,000 persons, mostly Americans, were reported at the park yesterday.

Margaret Wynn and Dick Hirsch of the Buffalo Courier-Express, who were aboard the three-decked steamship, reported that "nearly 40 white youngsters, several beaten or cut, cowered below decks in the ship's dining room for most of the trip after being attacked or threatened by the many Negro teen-agers who made up the majority of the passengers."

The reporters estimated that of the approximately 1,000 passengers, 80 percent were Negroes.

"Members of the ship's crew and private police," the reporters wrote, "vainly attempted to keep order, but when one fight was broken up, another flared in a different portion of the boat."

"Most of the trouble," they continued, "was caused by gangs of Negro girls who walked the deck, attacking white girls.

"Firecrackers were carelessly flung at passengers, exploding at their feet. Several received powder burns. Switch-blade knives were brandished. Youngsters were shoved to the deck by the rampaging mobs which rushed back and forth over the decks."

Six Cars Derailed In B&O Yards Here

When a freight car, eleventh from a B&O engine headed north in the yards between Court Street and Temple Street about 10:40 P. M. Wednesday left the track, it derailed five other cars before the train came to a halt.

The derailment was not a bad one and property damage was not extensive. However it required the "big hook," or wreck train, from Chillicothe to replace the derailed cars on the track and special crews to restore the track. The operations required several hours of work.

What caused the derailment, which was on a siding at the west end of Market Street, has not been determined, it was announced.

Murphy Store Is To Observe Anniversary

The G. C. Murphy Co. store here today was making final preparations to participate in the company-wide 50th anniversary observance this year.

Although the company was founded in Pennsylvania in 1906, the store was not established in Washington C. H. until seven years later, 43 years ago, in one long narrow room with only two counters.

Since then, however, it has grown and expanded until now it occupies the first floors and basements of five buildings and the second floor of one. It extends from the Court and Main Street corner almost a quarter of a block east on Court Street. It now covers around 18,000 square feet of floor space and employes an average of 55 people.

Russell Hinchee, the present manager, said a check showed the sales force represented a total of 295 years of sales experience.

THE LATEST expansion of the store here was in 1954, when the company acquired the Morris Store, which adjoined it on the east.

The corner room was added in 1948 after the Kroger Store was moved into its new building on West Court Street. A meeting room, primarily for district company meetings, was put on the second floor of this building during the remodeling program last year.

That same remodeling program connected the entire store with archways between the five different rooms.

Hinchee came here as the store manager in January of 1953, succeeding Gene Grissinger. Previous managers were William Humphries and Ted Ottinger. Back in 1921-22, the store was managed by Len Loudner of Washington C. H.

Headquarters of the company, which now has 303 stores, are in McKeesport, Pa.

rights issue." The term "Talmadge-type politicians," Kefauver said, referred to former Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia, a strongly prosegregation leader.

Stung by Kefauver's charges, Stevenson declared:

"SEN. KEFAUVER is engaged in mud slinging that will hurt the Democratic party. I shall not stoop to those tactics. I am sorry that he has resorted to personal abuse and deceit in these last days of the primary campaign."

Florida's primary results increase the pledged and favorably committed national convention votes to 174 for Stevenson and 133 for Kefauver.

Before Florida's primary, the lineup of delegate votes as tabulated on the basis of primary results and polls of other delegates stood this way:

Stevenson	148½
Kefauver	127
Others	180½
Uncommitted	342
Total	798

There will be 1,372 votes in the convention, with 686½ needed for a nomination.

The 180½ for "others" are spread among 10 men. The leading three are Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, with 56½; Gov. Frank Lausche of Ohio, 54, and Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, 46.

President Eisenhower's pickup of 26 additional delegates in the Florida primary runs his total delegates to 790 out of 923 chosen. A majority in the GOP National Convention will be 662.

THE DECISION for Twining to accept was speeded by a weekend report from Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen in Moscow making clear the bid was a firm one. This indicated that the Soviet government was not interested at the moment in inviting other members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff for a tour of Russian military establishments.

Comments from the White House and Defense Department showed they would welcome a broadened invitation, but when it became evident that this would not be promptly forthcoming the decision was made for Twining to accept.

As a matter of policy, it appears that Soviet moves for increasing military contacts with the United States have confronted Eisenhower and his chief advisers with a choice of difficult and risky alternatives.

The central problem is this:

1. How can the United States enter into friendlier military relations with Russia without causing its allies and the free world generally to lower its guard and relax vigilance against Soviet communism?

2. On the other hand, can the United States afford to cold-shoulder Soviet moves for more normal relations in the military field without appearing to other countries to have a kind of Iron Curtain of its own?

Eisenhower himself is described as convinced that more and closer American-Russian contact are in themselves desirable in the interest of peace.

Teen-agers Terrorize

Negro teen - agers into custody when the Canadiana docked here.

Police said no charges were placed against them immediately.

It was not known what set off the disturbances at the beach. An estimated 15,000 to 20,000 persons, mostly Americans, were reported at the park yesterday.

Margaret Wynn and Dick Hirsch of the Buffalo Courier-Express, who were aboard the three-decked steamship, reported that "nearly 40 white youngsters, several beaten or cut, cowered below decks in the ship's dining room for most of the trip after being attacked or threatened by the many Negro teen-agers who made up the majority of the passengers."

The reporters estimated that of the approximately 1,000 passengers, 80 percent were Negroes.

"Members of the ship's crew and private police," the reporters wrote, "vainly attempted to keep order, but when one fight was broken up, another flared in a different portion of the boat."

"Most of the trouble," they continued, "was caused by gangs of Negro girls who walked the deck, attacking white girls.

"Firecrackers were carelessly flung at passengers, exploding at their feet. Several received powder burns. Switch-blade knives were brandished. Youngsters were shoved to the deck by the rampaging mobs which rushed back and forth over the decks."

Six Cars Derailed In B&O Yards Here

When a freight car, eleventh from a B&O engine headed north in the yards between Court Street and Temple Street about 10:40 P. M. Wednesday left the track, it derailed five other cars before the train came to a halt.

The derailment was not a bad one and property damage was not extensive. However it required the "big hook," or wreck train, from Chillicothe to replace the derailed cars on the track and special crews to restore the track. The operations required several hours of work.

What caused the derailment, which was on a siding at the west end of Market Street, has not been determined, it was announced.

Murphy Store Is To Observe Anniversary

The G. C. Murphy Co. store here today was making final preparations to participate in the company-wide 50th anniversary observance this year.

Although the company was founded in Pennsylvania in 1906, the store was not established in Washington C. H. until seven years later, 43 years ago, in one long narrow room with only two counters.

Since then, however, it has grown and expanded until now it occupies the first floors and basements of five buildings and the second floor of one. It extends from the Court and Main Street corner almost a quarter of a block east on Court Street. It now covers around 18,000 square feet of floor space and employes an average of 55 people.

Russell Hinchee, the present manager, said a check showed the sales force represented a total of 295 years of sales experience.

THE LATEST expansion of the store here was in 1954, when the company acquired the Morris Store, which adjoined it on the east.

The corner room was added in 1948 after the Kroger Store was moved into its new building on West Court Street. A meeting room, primarily for district company meetings, was put on the second floor of this building during the remodeling program last year.

That same remodeling program connected the entire store with archways between the five different rooms.

Hinchee came here as the store manager in January of 1953, succeeding Gene Grissinger. Previous managers were William Humphries and Ted Ottinger. Back in 1921-22, the store was managed by Len Loudner of Washington C. H.

Headquarters of the company, which now has 303 stores, are in McKeesport, Pa.

rights issue." The term "Talmadge-type politicians," Kefauver said, referred to former Gov. Herman Talmadge of Georgia, a strongly prosegregation leader.

Stung by Kefauver's charges, Stevenson declared:

"SEN. KEFAUVER is engaged in mud slinging that will hurt the Democratic party. I shall not stoop to those tactics. I am sorry that he has resorted to personal abuse and deceit in these last days of the primary campaign."

Florida's primary results increase the pledged and favorably committed national convention votes to 174 for Stevenson and 133 for Kefauver.

Before Florida's primary, the lineup of delegate votes as tabulated on the basis of primary results and polls of other delegates stood this way:

Stevenson	148½
Kefauver	127
Others	180½
Uncommitted	342
Total	798

There will be 1,372 votes in the convention, with 686½ needed for a nomination.

The 180½ for "others" are spread among 10 men. The leading three are Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, with 56½; Gov. Frank Lausche of Ohio, 54, and Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, 46.

President Eisenhower's pickup of 26 additional delegates in the Florida primary runs his total delegates to 790 out of 923 chosen. A majority in the GOP National Convention will be 662.
